After equaling the school record with nine wins in back-to-back seasons and winning a pair of New Orleans Bowl titles, the Ragin'Cajuns football team finds themselves among elite company as it heads into the 2013 season.

Only seven other teams in the country — Alabama, Boise State, Cincinnati, Florida State, Ohio, Oregon and South Carolina — can boast having won nine games, including a bowl victory, in each of the last two years.

As he begins his third season at Louisiana, head coach Mark Hudspeth wants the Cajuns to accomplish more. A lot more.

After three strong recruiting years, Hudspeth has stocked the roster with both quality and quantity.

Fourteen starters return from the squad that went 9-4 last year, seven each on offense and defense, with both squads also boasting 10 backups returning as well, giving Hudspeth 34 members of the 2012 two-deep to work with.

All told, 53 lettermen return, including 23 on offense, 28 on defense and two on special teams. Add to the mix the 19 members of the 2011 recruiting class that redshirted and the incoming class of 25 student-athletes and Hudspeth should enjoy the deepest lineup in his short tenure with the Ragin' Cajuns.

After setting a school records for points (461), total offense (5,914) and first downs (268), the offense returns the bulk of its weapons from 2012, leading to continued optimism about the offensive performance.

Junior Terrance Broadway stepped into the starting lineup and set school records for total offense (3,611) and completion percentage (.654).

The offense will need to find replacements for two starting receivers and two offensive linemen.

The biggest questions heading into preseason camp is on defense where James Willis takes over as defensive coordinator, instilling within the Cajuns a new approach, a new attitude and a new scheme, switching to a four-man front

With all of the changes and adjustments that will need to be made, odds are the defense that finishes the season will be much-improved over the squad that opens the year at Arkansas.

The defense will need to find three new starters in the secondary, a process that should continue through the preseason.

Broadway Leads Deep QB Unit

After setting school records for total offense (3,611) and completion percentage (.654), junior Terrance Broadway returns as the unquestioned starter at quarterback.

Who the backup will be has yet to be decided as redshirt freshmen Brooks Haack, D'Shaie Landor and Jalen Nixon will take their ongoing competition into the preseason.

Broadway started the 2012 season as the backup to Blaine Gautier, but a pair of injuries sidelined Gautier for most of the year, allowing Broadway to take over.

And boy did he take over, throwing for 2,842 yards and 17 touchdowns and rushing for 769 yards and nine TDs. He rushed for 100 yards or more in three of the last four games, including 108 yards as part of an MVP performance in the New Orleans Bowl.

Haack, Landor and Nixon each bring different tools to the position.

Haack may be the best pure thrower of the three, passing for 1,991 yards and 31 touchdowns as a high school senior. He capped off a strong spring showing by completing 15-of-19 passes for 204 yards and a pair of touchowns.

Nixon is the best runner of the trio, a skill that has tempted Hudspeth to take advantage of by moving him to running back. He threw for 1,120 yards and rushed for 1,006 as a senior, being responsible for 29 TDs.

Much like Broadway, Landor combines both skills. He threw for 5,000 yards and rushed for 2,000 more in three years at Teurlings Catholic High.

Running Game Returns Intact

For an offense that normally uses just one back, the backfield sure is crowded as Louisiana returns their top four running backs from 2012, creating an atmosphere of friendly competition for playing time.

Alonzo Harris rushed for 881 yards and 10 touchdowns in 2012, including five 100-yard rushing games.

The running game took a significant step forward in 2012 and expectations are for even more improvement this fall. After averaging 125.2 yards per game in 2011, the Cajuns made a 55-percent jump to 193.5 yards and 34th in the nation last year.

Although the running ability of Broadway at quarterback helped, it was the depth in the backfield that keyed the jump.

Alonzo Harris is the incumbent starter after rushing for 991 yards and 10 touchdowns last year while sophomores Torrey Pierce and Effrem Reed are back after combining for 702 yards last year. Sophomore Montrel Carter, who started the 2012 opener against Lamar but suffered a torn ACL in the game, returns and should compete for playing time as well.

Harris brings good size and deceptive breakaway speed to the lineup while both Pierce and Reed excel at using their speed to run outside or break through quick holes in the middle.

Harris is the incumbent starter after posting five 100-yards rushing games in 2012, including in each of the last three games that he played. He picked up a game-high 120 yards, including a 68-yard touchdown, in the New Orleans Bowl

Harris begins his junior year ranked 12th in school history with 1,581 yards and seventh with 18 touchdowns.

Pierce started the 2012 season fifth on the depth chart but slowly played himself into the lineup and ended the year as the primary backup. He carried 49 times for 263 yards and three touchdowns, keying the comeback win over WKU by gaining 72 yards on five carries with a pair of touchdowns.

Listed third on the depth chart for the opener vs. Lamar, Reed led the Cajuns in rushing for the first of three times on thte season with 55 yards and a touchdown on seven carries. With Harris sidelined late in the year, Reed carried 17 times for 81 yards and a pair of touchdowns against South Alabama.

Carter's knee injury came at an inopportune time for the sophomore as it allowed the rest of the backfield to move past him on the depth chart. When healthy, he should begin the climb back into the lineup.

The depth continues as sophomore Marcus Jackson and junior DeMarcus Watts-Bracken return after strong showings in spring practice while freshmen Elijah McGuire (2,603 yards rushing, 31 TDs as HS senior) and Darius Hoggins (1,191, 16) round out the unit.

O-Line Works To Replace Two Starters

The Cajuns couldn't have asked more from their offensive line in 2012 after the five regulars started all 13 games together and allowed just 13 quarterback sacks to rank 13th in the nation.

Lost from the lineup are starting tackles Jaron Odom and Leonardo Bates, who combined to start the last 26 games together.

Offensive line coach Mitch Rodrigue was ready for the graduation however, quickly patching the lineup and being optimistic about its success.

Senior Andre Huval (6-2, 285) will lead the unit at center while junior Daniel Quave (6-3, 324) returns at right guard. Mykhael Quave (6-5, 295), who started every game at left guard last season, moves to left tackle.

The other two starting spots are expected to go to 2012 reserves Terry Johnson (6-2, 275) and Octravian Anderson (6-4, 277).

Huval, who is a member of the Remington Trophy watch list for the second straight year, was a second team All-Sun Belt and first team Capital One Academic All-District choice last year. He has started 26 consecutive games at center.

Daniel Quave, who has earned preseason All-Sun Belt recognition from several football magazines, has started all 26 games during his career. His younger brother, Mykhael, is just a sophomore but excelled as a redshirt freshman in 2012.

Johnson, a senior who is slated to start at left guard, played in 10 games last year after transferring from Northwest Mississippi CC. Anderson earned the starting right tackle assignment during spring drills. He played in six games as a reserve.

One of the priorities during spring practice was to continue to develop the depth on the line. With capable backups, Rodrigue would be able to rest his starters periodically during games, allowing them to be fresher late in the game.

The effort paid off as seniors Daniel Lemelle (6-2, 282) and Evyn Perry (6-2, 271), junior Jarad Martin (6-5, 310) and sophomore Greg Siener (6-4, 280) continued to improve while redshirt freshmen Jeremy Sparks (6-5, 288) and Zach Tarver (6-4, 267) showed that they were capable of seeing time.

In addition, Grant Horst (6-5, 250) and D'Aquin Withrow (6-6, 275) will join the program as freshmen this fall.

Changes Comes To The Receiver Corps

The departure of senior starters Javone Lawson and Harry Peoples, who combined to make 256 catches for 3,621 yards and 21 touchdowns in their careers, has created the opportunity for several young Cajuns receivers to move into the starting lineup.

Despite the departures, Hudspeth is optimistic about having no drop off in the performance of the receivers.

The primary reason for the optimism is the return of senior Darryl Surgent and juniors James Butler and Jamal Robinson.

Surgent, who started as an outside receiver in each of the last two seasons, is slated to move inside this year where they can take advantage of his elusive speed. He made 34 catches for 569 yards and three touchdowns last year and begins his final season with 69 career catches for 1,242 yards and nine scores.

Butler opened eyes as a freshman in 2010 when he made 14 catches for 200 yards. A knee injury however slowed his progress and cost him the 2011 campaign and when he returned to the lineup last season, he found himself at the end of a very long and talented list of receivers. He managed to make nine grabs for 97 yards and two touchdowns.

At 6-3, Butler's size, combined with his ability to make a tough catch, will help him take over as one of the starting outside receivers.

Robinson made 26 catches for 630 yards and an impressive 24.2 yards per catch, the second-highest average in the nation for a receiver with at least 25 grabs.

Any doubts that Robinson would excel as a starting receiver came midway through the year when he combined to make eight catches for 269 yards and two touchdowns against Arkansas State and ULM. He came back in the New Orleans Bowl to lead the Cajuns with six catches for 116 yards.

The unit has been bolstered by the addition of Lafayette native Ricky Johnson, who made 44 catches for 659 yards and seven touchdowns in three seasons at Tulsa.

Tulane transfer Devin Figaro, who caught three passes for 24 yards in limited action a year ago, should also fight for playing time. Add to the mix redshirt freshmen Jared Johnson, LaMarcus Allen and Lance Pace and first-year freshmen Scott Austin and Devin Scott and Louisiana's receiving unit is as deep and talented as ever,

Trio Return At Tight End

A year ago, the question that Hudspeth had to continually answer was how he planned to replace all-everything tight end Ladarius Green.

The answer ended up being by using the committee of Ian Thompson, Jacob Maxwell and Larry Pettis, who combined to make 36 catches for 308 yards and four touchdowns.

All three are back for their senior years, another reason why the offense is expected to continue posting big numbers.

Maxwell is the best receiver of the group, making 19 grabs for 185 yards and four scores, while Thompson is the better blocker of the trio.

Defensive Line

The play of the defensive line drove the success of the Cajuns in 2012. With a good mix of veteran leaders and promising freshmen, the line should once again lead the defense.

The switch to the 4-3 defense, a move made late in 2012 to take advantage of the Jamal Robinson emerged caught 26 passes for 630 yards in 2012. His 24.2 yards per catch was second in the nation.

Three of the five offensive line starters return from a unit ranked 13th nationally, allowing just 13 sacks.

depth on the defensive line, will challenge the unit.

The junior trio of Justin Hamilton, Christian Ringo and Brandon McCray return after combining to start 23 games last year, should form the nucleus of the unit. Add to the mix sophomore Dominique Tovell, who started six games as an outside linebacker last year, and the starting front features both youth and experience.

Ringo and Tovell are slated to start at defensive ends while Hamilton and McCray will occupy the tackle slots.

Ringo emerged as one of the top defensive playmakers in the Sun Belt last year, ranking second in the league with seven sacks and 11th with 10.5 TFL, having a sack in six of the last eight regular season games.

Tovell started six of the first seven games at linebacker as a redshirt freshman last year, making 21 tackles with one sack and three TFL. He made the move to defensive end during the spring and quickly made the adjustment.

Hamilton made 11 starts a year ago, making 29 tackles with three sacks and eight TFL. He was named the Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week after opening the year with four TFL, a sack and two forced fumbles in the win over Lamar.

McCray was a steady performer in 2012, seeing action in 10 games including four starts. He made 13 tackles, including 3.5 TFL.

As many as seven players are competing for the backup spots, including junior Marvin Martin and sophomores Chris Prater and Marquis White, and redshirt freshmen Darrien Batiste, Remaine Douglas, Karmichael Dunbar and Blain Winston.

Anderson Leads Deep Linebacker Unit

The loss of Le'Marcus Gibson to graduation, a knee injury to returning starter Jake Molbert and the move to a 4-3 defense has left the linebacker unit in a state of transition for the 2012 season.

The changes won't diminish the productivity however as a bevy of young linebackers gives unique depth to the position.

Senior Justin Anderson is the leader of the group, and will start again at middle linebacker. He led the team and ranked seventh in the Sun Belt with 105 tackles in 2012 (70 solo). He had 10 or more tackles in a game six times.

Molbert, who made 49 tackles in the first 10 games, tore the ACL in his left knee against South Alabama (11/24/12), requiring surgery. He should be cleared for full contact during preseason after missing all of spring practice, but only time will tell how long it will take him to return to full strength.

Competition for the two outside positions should continue through preseason camp and into the regular season, benefiting from the depth and talent of the unit. The challengers include seniors Andrew Hebert and Brandon Nash, juniors Boris Anyama and Trae Johnson, sophomore Chris Hill and redshirt freshmen Kevin Fouquier & Rodney Smith. Add to the mix returning special teams standouts Tyren Alexander and Zach Bourque and Willis has 11 linebackers to work with.

Anyama and Fouquier emerged from spring practice as the starters outside with Hill and Alexander earning the backup slots. Hebert, who played tight end last year, made nine tackles in the spring game to earn the backup spot to Anderson in the middle.

Anyama has made 37 tackles over the last two years, including 21 despite missing four games because of injury in 2012.

Fouquier has impressed the coaching staff since being an early enrollee in January, 2012. He made significant development in the weight room during his redshirt season, adding 22 pounds to his frame.

Secondary In Transition

The area hit hardest is the secondary where both cornerbacks have departed for the NFL.

The secondary lost a third starter until Rodney Gillis elected to return to Louisiana after receiving a waiver from the NCAA that gave him a sixth year to complete his eligibility. Gillis sat out spring practice but returned to take part in summer conditioning.

With Gillis back at free safety and the sophomore duo of Al Riles and T.J. Worthy, the middle of the field features the most experience.

Gillis started every game last year, finishing second on the team with 75 tackles and second in the Sun Belt with five interceptions.

Riles had his freshmen season cut short after three games because of a lower leg injury, but his return in the spring led to a quick ascent up the depth chart.

Worthy started three of the 11 games that he played in, ranking seventh on the team with 47 tackles.

A wild card at safety is junior Darius Barksdale, who started six games at strong safety and made 28 tackles in 2012 but battled injuries and disciplinary issues throughout the year. If he can establish the trust of his teammates and coaching staff, he could prove to be one of the better defenders on the squad.

The two cornerback spots were a work in progress during the spring with Trevence Patt moving from strong safety to take over one starting assignment with sophomore Jevante Watson, junior Sean Thomas and redshirt freshman Dominick Jones filling out the two-deep.

Patt emerged midway through the year and started five of the last six games with the Christian Ringo ranked second in the Sun Belt with seven sacks in 2012.

Cajuns going 5-1 during the period, the lone loss being a last-second defeat at No. 7 Florida.

Watson and Thomas were two of the better special teams defenders, combining to make 24 tackles of which 10 came while playing in the secondary.

The position battle will continue into the fall and be bolstered by the addition of junior college defenders Cedric Tillman and Corey Trim and freshmen Troy McCollum, Simeon Thomas and Tracy Walker.

The two years playing at the junior college level give Tillman and Trim the inside shot at cracking the lineup while McCollum and Thomas were each three-star recruits coming out of high school

A Special Team Make Over

The loss of first team All-Sun Belt punter and kicker Brett Baer resulted in the addition of two specialists.

Sophomore Steven Brauchele, who earned honorable mention Junior College All-America honors last year after making seven of his nine field goal attempts at Mississippi Gulf Coast CC, is expected to take over the kicking chores.

The Cajuns went a little further to find a new punter, importing junior Daniel Cadona from Australia. A former Australian Rules Football and Rugby standout, Cadona routinely generated 50+ yard kicks during spring drills.

Junior John Broussard, who handled the long-snapping chores for all punts last year, will add the short snaps for placements this year. He has successfully converted 108 straight snaps over the last two seasons.

The most-spirited competition during spring practice was for the holder duties on placements with at least a half-dozen players trying out for the spot.

Sophomore Jake Guidry, who was a backup last year but did not see any game action, emerged as the leader at the position and should handle the position this fall.

Early Challenges at Arkansas & KSU

For the second straight year, the schedule will challenge the Cajuns in a number of ways.

Louisiana opens the season with consecutive games against perhaps the two most talented teams on the schedule. The Cajuns open the 2013 slate at Arkansas on Aug. 31 in the first game in Fayetteville for former Wisconsin head coach Bret Bielema.

The Razorbacks are just one year removed from an 11-2 season in 2011 that included a 29-16 win over Kansas State in the AT&T Cotton Bowl.

One week later (Sept. 7), Louisiana will be in Manhattan, Kan. to face defending Big 12 champion Kansas State (11-2), that finished the year ranked 11th nationally in the USA Today poll and Rodney Gillis was second on the team with 75 tackles and second in the league with five interceptions.

12th by the Associated Press.

The Ragin' Cajuns will attempt to improve on their 10-1 home record in the first two seasons under Hudspeth when they host Nicholls State in the annual Herbert Heymann Classic on Sept. 14. The contest will open the five-game home schedule.

Louisiana makes its second trip to Ohio in three years when the Cajuns play at Akron on Sept. 21. The game is the fourth straight non-conference game.

Sun Belt Slate Features Three ESPN Games

The seven-game Sun Belt schedule begins at home against league newcomer Texas State on Oct. 5 It will be the only Saturday game played in October.

The title hopes for the Ragin' Cajuns should get a little clearer after back-to-back Tuesday night road games at WKU (Oct. 15) and Arkansas State (Oct. 22). Both games will be against one of the top four teams in the preseason poll and be televised nationally on either ESPN or ESPN2.

Louisiana steps out of conference play to host future Sun Belt member New Mexico State for the annual Homecoming game on Nov. 2.

The third national TV game of the year follows when Troy visits Cajun Field on Thursday, Nov. 7 for a game televised on ESPNU.

Cajuns Close Season On Saturdays

The final three games of the regular season move back to Saturdays as the Cajuns sandwich road games at Sun Belt newcomer Georgia State (Nov. 16) and South Alabama (Dec. 7) around a home game with ULM (Nov. 30) that could go a long way to decide the Sun Belt title.

Head Coach Mark Hudspeth

Third Year Cajuns' Head Coach Eyes A Sun Belt Championship After 18 Wins & Two New Orleans Bowl Championships In First Two Seasons At Louisiana

Mark Hudspeth is a winner. It's that simple.

From his days coaching Winston (Miss.) Academy to the 1997 state title to December, 2011 when he provided Ragin' Cajun fans a last-second 32-30 win over San Diego State in the program's first bowl appearance in 41 years, Hudspeth has been a champion.

Like football, winning is all he knows.

Hired as Louisiana's 26th head coach in program history on Dec. 13, 2010, Hudspeth quickly grabbed the attention of Ragin' Cajuns fans with his dynamic personality, energy and desire. He tirelessly toured the Acadiana area, visiting all five parishes to speak to any group that wanted to listen to him talk about Ragin' Cajuns football.

And seemingly overnight, he reversed UL's football fortunes, taking the Ragin' Cajuns from nine losses in 2010 to a school-record tying nine wins in both 2011 and 2012. He is 18-8 in his two seasons, including a 10-1 record in home games and a 4-0 mark against in-state opponents.

More importantly, the Cajuns have produced in the classroom. In the five semesters under Hudspeth, the Cajuns have turned in four of the best semesters academically since grades were tracked in 1982.

From the day he arrived on campus, Hudspeth began educating the Ragin' Cajuns on how to win.

One of the first lessons he gave came when he had the offense and defense engage in an old-fashioned tug of war. As the rope went back and forth with neither team generating enough force to win the battle, Hudspeth stopped the Cajuns and had both teams move to the same side of the rope, pointing out how much easier it is to move the rope when everyone was on the same side and fighting for the same thing.

Months later in New Orleans with Louisiana down a point with 35 seconds left and a seemingly endless length of Superdome turf away from even having a chance to win, the Ragin' Cajuns remembered that lesson by digging in and driving 49 yards in five plays to set up Brett Baer's game-winning 50-yard field goal as time expired.

"We never let go of the rope", Hudspeth told the Cajun fans in attendance.

The development of the Cajuns in the two seasons under Hudspeth has been dramatic. Louisiana has posted the first back-to-back nine win seasons in program history and with consecutive R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl victories, the Cajuns have gone from 41 straight years without a bowl appearance to owning a bowl winning streak.

In fact, Louisiana is one of just eight schools that has won nine or more games in each of the last two years, including a bowl game, joining Alabama, Boise State, Cincinnati, Florida State, Ohio, Oregon and South Carolina.

Hudspeth also boldly predicted that home games at Cajun Field would be the place to be and all but demanded that fans be there. True to his word, the Ragin' Cajuns have gone 10-1 at home in his two seasons, including a perfect 5-0 record in 2011, only the fourth time in stadium history (and first since 1987). Cajuns fans believed the young coach, setting a school record for season tickets sold in 2011 that helped to set a stadium record by averaging 29,171 fans per game in the 31,000 seat facility. The increase of 11,788 fans per game was the highest in the nation.

Hudspeth was rewarded for turning around the Ragin' Cajuns, being named a finalist for both the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year and Paul Bear Bryant Awards.

The NFL has also paid attention to what is happening with the Ragin' Cajuns. In 2011, Dwight Bentley (Detroit) and Ladarius Green (San Diego) were selected in the NFL Draft. in 2012, seven Cajuns seniors earned invitations to NFL preseason camps,

A 21-year coaching veteran, Hudspeth carries a 84-29 career record in nine seasons as a collegiate head coach into the 2013 season, winning 10 or more games five times and having winning records in eight straight campaigns.

When you include his 25-1 record in two years as head coach at Winston Academy (1997-98), Hudspeth owns a 109-30 record (.784) in 11 years as a head coach.

Hudspeth's coaching philosophy focuses on the traditional core values that he learned growing up in small town Mississippi, with the willingness to shake things up when given the chance.

A master motivator, he takes advantage of every opportunity to teach a lesson to the Cajuns.

Prior to the FIU game in 2011, he surprised the Ragin' Cajuns by outfitting them in black helmets and black pants, a combination that was never used before. The motivation worked as Louisiana ended a two-game losing streak against the Panthers.

Last year, Hudspeth introduced an all black uniform, complete with a fleur-de-lis on the chest and inspirational French slogans on the back. The Cajuns responded with a last-minute win over WKU.

Hudspeth is also a teacher, knowing that the onus is on him to not only win football games, but to do so the right way. He realizes it is more important that he help the Ragin' Cajuns players make the transformation from young adults to men, knowing that he has been entrusted with the lives of his players by their parents and families.

Hudspeth, 44, came to Lafayette after serving as the passing game coordinator at Mississippi State for two seasons (2009-10), helping the Bulldogs end eight years of football frustrations by posting an 8-4 record and a Gator Bowl appearance in his final season.

After three years as an assistant coach at Delta State (1999-2000) and Navy (2001), Hudspeth took over as head coach at North Alabama and the winning quickly commenced. He guided the Lions to a 66-21 record in seven seasons (2002-08), winning two Gulf South Conference titles and making five appearances in the NCAA Division II Championship, advancing to the semi-finals three times (2003, 2005 & 2008).

Inheriting a program that had three consecutive losing records, Hudspeth turned things around quickly, helping the Lions to a 13-1 record in just his second season (2003). North Alabama claimed the league title with a perfect 9-0 mark and advanced to the NCAA Championship for the first time in seven years, defeating Southern Arkansas and Carson-Newman before falling at North Dakota in the national semi-finals.

For his effort, Hudspeth was named the Gulf South Coach of the Year while also being voted the NCAA Division II Region 2 Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association.

The Lions were led that year by Wil Hall, who completed 72-percent of his passes, throwing for 3,531 yards and 30 touchdowns en route to winning the Harlon Hill Award, the NCAA Division II equivalent of the Heisman Trophy.

The winning didn't stop there as the Lions went 11-3 and advanced to the NCAA semis in 2005, the first of four straight 10-win campaigns.

UNA went 11-1 in 2006, including 8-0 in league play to claim its second Gulf South title, with Hudspeth earning his second coach of the year award while also being selected as the NCAA Division II Region 2 Coach of the Year again. The Lions followed that up with a 10-2 record and an appearance in the NCAA Division II quarterfinals in 2007.

Hudspeth capped off his tenure at North Alabama by guiding the Lions to a 12-2 record in 2008 and making their fourth straight NCAA appearance, falling in the semifinals.

The Hudspeth Family (L-R): Gunner, Mark, Major, Tyla & Carley.

Born on Nov. 10, 1968 in Montgomery, Ala., Hudspeth moved to Louisville, Miss. before the age of one. In a town with a population of just 7,000, he quickly became one of the towns' most notable young men. He lettered a total of 16 times in five sports at Winston Academy, four each in football, baseball and track, three in basketball and one in golf, and was voted the school's most versatile athlete as a senior.

Success came to Hudspeth at Winston Academy as he helped the Patriots to the state title game as a senior in football 1987. He went on to earn all-county honors three times and play in the Mississippi High School All-Star game as a senior.

Hudspeth continued his playing career at Delta State (1987-91), lettering all four years. He started at safety as a junior and at quarterback as a senior.

After graduating from Delta State with a degree in health and education in 1992, Hudspeth began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Central Arkansas, receiving his master's degree in secondary school administration in 1993.

While at Central Arkansas, he was part of the coaching staff that guided the squad to the 1992 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference crown.

Hudspeth earned his first full-time coaching position when he went to Nicholls State, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends in 1994 and the running backs in 1995.

His high school alma mater beckoned in 1996 as Hudspeth returned to Winston Academy as head coach, guiding the team to a 25-1 record and the 1997 state title during his two seasons.

It was back to Delta State in 1999, where he served as offensive coordinator for two seasons, winning the NCAA Division II national title in 2000. The Patriot offense broke 21 school records, 12 Gulf South Conference records and six NCAA Division II records en route to the title.

Hudspeth moved to U.S. Naval Academy to serve as the offensive coordinator in 2000 before leaving to become the head coach at North Alabama the following year.

Hudspeth, who is married to the former Tyla McConnell, has two sons, Gunner (16) and Major (2), and one daughter, Carley (13).

REED STRINGER
Assistant Head Coach/ TE & Recruiting Coor.

Reed Stringer is in his third season at Louisiana where he serves as assistant head coach. He works directly with the Cajuns tight ends while also serving as recruiting coordinator.

Stringer was named the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com after coordinating the recruiting efforts for a class that was ranked tops in the Sun Belt and fifth among the non-BCS automatic qualifying programs.

Prior to working at Louisiana, Stringer served as the offensive player development coach at Clemson in 2010.

In his first season with the Cajuns, Stringer helped Ladarius Green emerge as one of the top tight ends in the country, earning first team All-Sun Belt honors while also being a semi-finalist for the Mackey Award, which is given to the nation's top tight end. Green was a fourth round selection by the San Diego Chargers in the NFL Draft.

Stringer's efforts as recruiting coordinator have paid bigger dividends. His initial class produced eight players who were able to contribute to the Cajuns' success last year with the rest redshirting.

Before his time at Clemson, Stringer spent seven seasons at Mississippi State in a variety of roles. He began as a graduate assistant with the Bulldogs offense from 2003-2004. Stringer was then named the tight ends and special teams coach from 2005-08.

He took over as Mississippi State's coordinator of recruiting operations in 2009 and coached alongside current Cajuns head coach Mark Hudspeth that year.

As tight ends coach, Stringer responded in 2005 by helping Eric Butler become the school's all-time touchdown receptions leader among tight ends. Under Stringer's guidance, Butler and teammate Dezmond Sherrod worked their ways to professional football careers.

Stringer's coaching career began as a graduate assistant/tight ends coach at Delta State in 2002.

He was a four-year starter on Delta State's offensive line, helping DSU claim the 2000 NCAA Division II national championship with then-DSU offensive coordinator Mark Hudspeth. In addition to that '00 national title, he was also instrumental in helping Delta State win the 1998 and 2000 Gulf South Conference titles.

Stringer was a two-time academic All-Gulf South Conference player and an Academic All-American and was named to the GSC Academic Honor Roll three times. He earned a bachelor's degree in business management from Delta State in 2001 and completed a master's in business administration from Delta State in 2003.

Stringer was born on January 26, 1979 in Canton, Miss. He is married to the former Emily Howell and they have two sons, Smith and Banks.

JAY JOHNSON
Offensive Coordinator/ Quarterbacks

An offensive strategist with over two decades of coaching experience, Jay Johnson is in his third season at Louisiana. He serves as the Cajuns' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

In two seasons under Johnson's tutelage, the Cajuns have posted two of the top three offensive seasons in school history, including school records for total offense (5,914) and points (461) in 2012.

Blaine Gautier emerged as one of the top offensive threats in the south in 2011, throwing for a school record 2,958 yards and 23 touchdowns. Last year, Terrance Broadway replaced Gautier and set a new school record for total offense (3,611).

Johnson came to Lafayette after serving as quarterbacks coach at Central Michigan in 2010, helping sophomore Ryan Radcliff (3,358 yards & 17 TDS) post one of the top seasons in school history.

Johnson began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Columbia-Hickman High in Columbia, Mo., in 1993. He was a graduate assistant at Missouri in 1994 prior to working as offensive coordinator role at Augsburg that season. From 1995-96, Johnson served as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator at Truman State.

Johnson moved on to Kansas for the next five seasons (1997-2001) as an assistant coach. He worked as quarterbacks coach from1997-2000 before handling the running backs in 2001.

Johnson's career led him to Southern Miss in 2003, starting a five-year tenure that had him working with the tight ends (2003), running backs (2004) and three as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2005-07). USM flourished, making five bowl appearances.

Johnson headed to Louisville, where he spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons, the last serving as the team's tight ends coach.

A 1992 graduate of Northern Iowa, Johnson was a three-time All-Gateway Conference selection as a quarterback and two-year team captain. He led UNI to a 31-8 record during his career, three conference championships and three appearances in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. He finished his career with almost 500 completions and threw for more than 8,000 yards and 58 touchdowns. The 1992 team finished the season 12-2 overall and ranked No. 3 nationally.

Johnson earned President's Academic Excellence honors in the Gateway Conference and was a Dean's List scholar at Northern Iowa where he compiled a 3.47 GPA. He held a perfect 4.0 grade point average while completing his master's degree at Missouri. That earned him a Superior Graduate Achievement Award from the Department of Health and Exercise Science.

Jay and his wife, Lori, are the parents of one son, Cole.

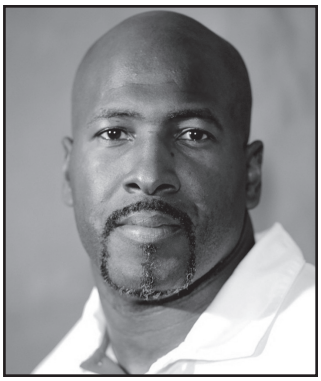
JAMES WILLIS
Defensive Coor./ Linebackers



James Willis, who earned a national championship at Alabama and has also worked at Alabama and Texas Tech, is in the first year as defensive coordinator with Louisiana.

A 12-year collegiate coaching veteran, Willis has five years experience working in the SEC and Big 12 conferences. He will be counted on to develop the young Ragin' Cajuns defense that ranked eighth in the league in total defense in 2012.

Willis spent the 2006-08 seasons as the linebackers coach at Auburn under head coach Tommy Tuberville. The Tigers ranked No. 7 nationally in scoring defense in 2006 and followed with a No. 6 ranking in 2007 and a No. 14 ranking in scoring defense in 2008.

Auburn appeared in two bowls during his tenure, the 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl and the 2007 Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Tigers defeated Nebraska 17-14 in the Cotton Bowl and defeated Clemson 23-20 in overtime in the Chick-fil-A. He also coached a pair of Freshman All-Americans at linebacker at Auburn in Tray Blackmon (2006) and Spencer Pybus (2008).

Willis moved to Alabama in 2009, helping the Tide complete a perfect 14-0 season by defeating Texas, 37-21 in the BCS Championship game. He helped guide a defense that finished second nationally in total defense, working with All-American linebacker and Butkus Award recipient Rolando McClain.

Willis rejoined Tuberville's staff as defensive coordinator at Texas Tech in 2010.

A three-year starter at Auburn (1990-92), he recorded 344 career tackles. He was the SEC Co-Defensive Freshman of the Year in 1990. He was a first team All-SEC pick as a junior in 1992.

Willis declared for the NFL Draft following his junior year and was a fifth round selection (119th overall) by the Green Bay Packers. He played seven seasons in the NFL, playing for Green Bay (1993-94), Philadelphia (1995-98) and Seattle (1999).

A member of six playoff teams during his NFL career, Willis played in 93 career games, totaling 221 tackles (129 solo).

Willis returned to Auburn in 2002 to serve as a student assistant coach while he completed his undergraduate degree. After earning his bachelor's degree in 2003, he served as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003.

Willis received his first full-time coaching position in 2004 when he became linebackers coach at Rhode Island. He took over as linebackers coach at Temple in 2005 before making his to Auburn in 2006.

A native of Huntsville, Ala., Willis played high school football at J.O. Johnson High School, earning Parade All-America honors as a senior.

He and his wife, Shalane, have three children, daughter, Jade, and sons Jalen and Jordan James.

MITCH RODRIGUE
Running Game Coord./ Offensive Line

A 26-year collegiate coaching veteran, Mitch Rodrigue is in his third season as the running game coordinator and offensive line coach at Louisiana.

Rodrigue joined the Cajuns staff after working with the tight ends and offensive tackles at South Alabama for three seasons (2008-10).

Rodrigue has quickly developed an offensive line that ranks among the best in the country. The five regulars started all 13 games together in 2012, helping Louisiana rank in the top 35 nationally averaging 193.5 yards rushing, a 55-percent increase from 2011. Inheriting a line that allowed 39 sacks in 2010, Rodrigue has molded a unit that gave up just 13 in 2012 to rank 13th in the country.

Rodrigue's work has led to great success. He has worked with 11 teams that earned bowl invitations, nine while an assistant at Southern Miss and in each of his first two seasons with the Cajuns.

Prior to his arrival at South Alabama, Rodrigue spent the previous nine seasons at Southern Miss, where he coached the offensive line (2003-07), tight ends (2000-02) and running backs (1999). He was named one of the Top 10 recruiters from a non-BCS conference by Rivals.com in 2006.

From 2004-06, Rodrigue's offensive lines allowed 10 sacks or fewer, including just seven sacks in 2004. In 2007, he tutored linemen George Batiste and Travis Cooley, who became the school's first All-Americans on the line in a half-century.

In 2004, he helped develop Jeremy Parquet, who was selected in the seventh round by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2005 NFL Draft.

During his first season leading the USM offensive line (2003), Rodrigue helped the Golden Eagles win their fourth Conference USA title and earn an invitation to the Liberty Bowl despite working with a unit that had lost three starters to the NFL. Rodrigue saw three players - Parquet (first-team), Jim Hicks (second-team) and Chris White (third-team) - garner all-league honors.

Rodrigue also coached several seasons at his alma mater, Nicholls State (1993-98), serving as tight ends and offensive line coach as well as offensive coordinator.

Rodrigue earned a bachelor's degree in health & physical education from Nicholls State in 1988 and a master's degree in educational administration and supervision from Southern Miss in 1990. He helped Nicholls State to win the 1984 Gulf Star Conference title and reach the second round of the NCAA Division I -AA playoffs in 1986.

A native of Thibodaux, La., Rodrigue was born on Jan. 2, 1965. He is the father of three children, Maci, Madden and Mallori.

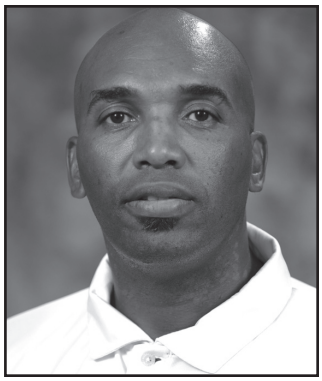
TIM EDWARDS
Assistant Coach/ Defensive Line



A 12-year coaching veteran who boasts a half-dozen years playing experience at the professional level, Tim Edwards is in his third season as the defensive line coach for Louisiana.

Edwards came to Lafayette in January, 2011, reuniting with Mark Hudspeth, whom he played with at Delta State from 1987-91.

His hard work has shown big dividends.

in 2012, Edwards helped Emeka Onyenekwu to earn first team All-Sun Belt honors while his mentoring of Cordian Hagans and Christian Ringo helped each develop into two of the best linemen in the league.

Edwards came to Louisiana after spending the previous three seasons as co-defensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach at Florida A&M. He was part of a program that went 25-9 during his three seasons in Tallahassee.

Prior to his stint with the Rattlers, Edwards served a five-year tenure at Hampton (2003-07). He coached the defensive line and linebackers, in addition to serving as the recruiting coordinator.

Edwards helped bring in a wealth of talent that resulted in one of the best four-year runs in school history. Hampton won three consecutive conference championships (2004-06), made three NCAA playoff appearances (2004-06) and captured back-to-back Black College National Championships in (2004 and 2005).

Edwards began his career as a defensive line and linebackers coach for Kentucky State in 1998 and eventually had stops with the Arena Football League 2's Carolina Rhinos and Pearl River Community College, before landing at Hampton in 2003.

His days on the sideline have helped to develop the professional careers of several former players including: Justin Durant (Detroit), Kendall Langford (St. Louis), Marcus Dixon (New York Jets) Cletidus Hunt (Green Bay Packers), Kitwana Jones (Saskatchewan Rough Riders, CFL), Dewayne Woods (Georgia Force, AFL) and Chris Avery (Grand Rapids Rampage AFL).

Edwards is a 1991 graduate of Delta State, earning a bachelor's degree in aviation management. He was a two-time first team All-Gulf South selection as a defensive lineman and played alongside Hudspeth, who was a four-year letterman at DSU from 1986-90. Edwards was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in the fall of 2008.

A 12th round pick by the New England Patriots in 1991, Edwards spent the 1991-92 seasons on the Patriots roster. He later played from 1995-97 with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders of the CFL.

A native of Philadelphia, Miss., Edwards is a member of the NFL Retired Players' Association, the CFL Retired Players' Association and the American Football Coaches Associations.

He is married to the former LuAnn Shockency and they have three children, Halena, Timothy II and Kenci.

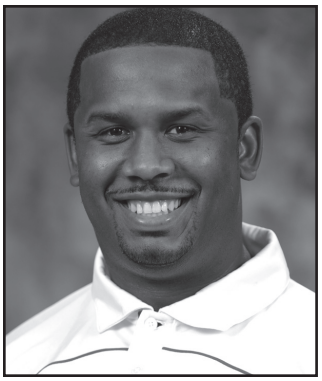
MARQUASE LOVINGS
Assistant Coach/ Running Backs



Running backs coach Marquase Lovings is ready for his third year on the Ragin' Cajuns coaching staff after helping Louisiana post the top offensive seasons in school history.

The development of the offensive backfield in Lovings' two seasons has been dramatic.

In 2011, Lovings' helped freshman Alonzo Harris emerge early in the season, finishing the year with 700 yards and eight touchdowns to earn Sun Belt Freshman of the Year honors.

In 2012, Harris was joined by freshmen Effrem Reed and Torrey Pierce, allowing the Cajuns to improve their rushing from 125.2 to 193.5 yards per game, ranking them 34th nationally and second in the Sun Belt.

Prior to joining the Cajuns, Lovings spent four seasons at Mississippi State (2007-10), first as a defensive quality control coach before taking over as defensive graduate assistant for his final two seasons. It was at MSU where he met and worked with Mark Hudspeth, who served as the passing game coordinator from 2009-10.

Lovings' main focus with the Bulldogs defense was with the defensive linemen. He worked under defensive line coaches David Turner and Chris Wilson.

The Bulldogs had several standout defensive linemen during Lovings' four years, including Titus Brown. Brown went on to play with the Cleveland Browns from 2008-12. Lovings helped three defensive linemen earn All-SEC honors, with Brown (2007 second team), Fletcher Cox (2009 freshman team) and Pernell McPhee (2010 first team) taking those honors. Cox went on to become the 12th pick by the Philadelphia Eagles in the 2012 NFL Draft.

Lovings experienced coaching in a two bowl games at MSU, including the Bulldogs' rout of Michigan, 52-14, in the 2011 Gator Bowl. It was the worst loss Michigan had ever suffered in any bowl game in its history.

Lovings also helped MSU win the 2007 Liberty Bowl, as the Bulldogs defense held Central Florida to just three points and kept Knights' star running back Kevin Smith from breaking the NCAA single-season rushing record. The junior finished 61 yards shy of Barry Sanders' mark of 2,628 yards set for Oklahoma State in 1988.

In 2007, Lovings' defensive line faced three of the top four rushers in the country during the season, holding each of them well under their season average. MSU limited Arkansas' Darren McFadden to 88 yards (143.8 season avg.), Tulane's Matt Forte to 47 yards (177.3 season avg.) and UCF's Smith to 119 yards (188.3 season avg.).

A graduate of and former walk-on tight end with Howard University, Lovings also has high school coaching on his resume with stints at Dunbar High in Washington, D.C. and at his alma mater, P.K. Yonge High in Gainesville, Fla.

He earned his master's in sports administration from Mississippi State in 2008 and pursued a doctorate in education at MSU.

JORGE MUNOZ
Assistant Coach/ Wide Receivers

Jorge Munoz is in his sixth year as an assistant coach at Louisiana and the third on the staff of Mark Hudspeth. He will serve again as receivers coach in 2012.

Munoz' work with the Cajuns wide receivers the last two years has been exemplary. Javone Lawson (134 catches, 2,107 yards, 15 TDs) and Harry Peoples (122-1,514-6) concluded their careers in 20112 as only the third set of receivers in school history to each have 100 receptions in a career.

In 2011, Munoz played an integral role in the Cajuns throwing for over 3,500 yards. Lawson (63 catches, 1,092 yards) posted one of the top seasons by a Louisiana receiver while Harry Peoples and Darryl Surgent also emerged as steady targets for Blaine Gautier.

Record offensive results are nothing new for Munoz, who served as the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at UL from 2008-10. In his first season, he helped the Cajuns to finish seventh in the nation in rushing, 13th in total offense and 24th in scoring.

That same season, Munoz helped quarterback Michael Desormeaux earn Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year while running back Tyrell Fenory rushed for 1,375 yards and 19 touchdowns. Fenroy, a Doak Walker Award Semifinalist, was named the 2008 Sun Belt Player of the Year after becoming the school, Sun Belt and State of Louisiana all-time leading rusher.

The Cajuns "Play Station" attack of 2008 shattered the school record for total offense with 5,390 yards, scoring a school-record 54 TDs.

In 2010, the Cajuns ranked 34th nationally in passing offense, despite starting three different quarterbacks due to injury. Tight end Ladarius Green led the nation in receiving yards and touchdowns by a tight end and earned All-America honors from CBSSports.com.

Prior to UL, Munoz spent three seasons at Eastern Illinois (2005-07), starting as receivers coach in 2005, co-offensive coordinator in 2006 and offensive coordinator in 2007.

Munoz spent two seasons as the receivers coach at Charleston Southern (2003-04). In 2004, his wide receivers ranked first, second and fourth in the Big South Conference. The Buccaneers passing offense led the Big South and ranked 17th in the NCAA.

At Anderson, his 2002 offense ranked fifth in passing, while the 2001 squad was sixth in passing, setting 22 school marks. His quarterback, Joel Steele, was the MVP of the HCAC both years.

A 1998 graduate of Bethany College, Munoz was a two-time All-American quarterback. He played one year in the Arena Football League with the Albany (NY) Firebirds. Munoz was a multi-sport standout at San Diego Hilltop High.

Munoz and his wife Erin have two children, Ava (8) and Alex (6).

TIM REBOWE
Assistant Coach/ Safeties

Tim Rebowe begins his 10th season as an assistant coach at Louisiana, and the third on the staff of coach Mark Hudspeth. He will once again work with the Cajun safeties. He previously tutored the safeties from 2004-07 and coached the linebackers from 2008-10.

The safeties responded to Rebowe in 2011. Jemarlous Moten finished second on the team with 80 tackles and combined with Lionel Stokes to intercept five passes, returning three for scores.

The Cajuns' linebackers had stellar seasons for three years under Rebowe, with a member of the linebacker corps leading the team in tackles each season.

Rebowe guided linebackers Antwyne Zanders and Grant Fleming, who ranked first and second on the team in total tackles in 2009, respectively. Both players were named All-Sun Belt Conference. For Zanders, it was his third All-SBC recognition, while Fleming earned All-SBC for the second time.

The Cajuns' pass defense had a strong first year under Rebowe in 2004, finishing with a No. 11 national ranking in passing yards allowed. Both of his starting safeties advanced to the NFL. Strong safety C.C. Brown (101 tackles) was drafted by the Houston Texans in the 2005 NFL Draft and free safety Antwain Spann, who signed as a free agent with the New York Giants, played in NFL Europe and several seasons with the New England Patriots.

In 2005, the Cajuns' pass defense was ranked 23rd nationally, allowing only 190 yards per game despite opponents facing an uphill climb in eight games. The Cajuns trailed after three quarters just twice in 2005.

Rebowe came to UL after three seasons as cornerbacks coach at Sun Belt rival La.-Monroe.

Prior to his stint with the Warhawks, Rebowe spent six years at Nicholls State where he served as defensive backs coach (1995-2000), special teams' coordinator (1995-98), recruiting coordinator (1998-2000) and wide receivers coach (2000). In 1996, the Colonels pass efficiency defense ranked seventh nationally in I-AA.

A native of Norco, La., Rebowe began his coaching career in 1987 at his alma mater, Destrehan High School.

His ties to the Cajuns began in 1994 when former Destrehan High star Damon Mason transferred to Louisiana from Jones County JC. Mason would go on to have one of the best careers by a defensive back in Cajuns history.

Rebowe earned his bachelor of science in physical education from Louisiana State University in 1987.

He is married to the former Kim Robichaux and they have a daughter, Samantha, and a son, Tyler.

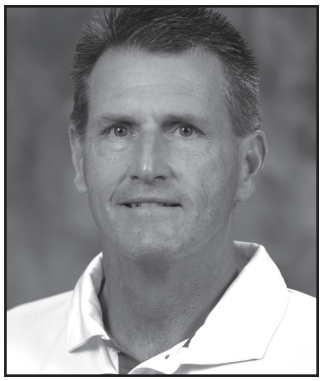
DAVID SAUNDERS
Asst. Coach/CB & Recruiting Assistant



David Saunders is in his third season as the cornerbacks coach and assistant recruiting coordinator for the Ragin' Cajuns.

Saunders came to Louisiana from Mississippi, where he had three stints on the Ole Miss staff, the last beginning in April 2010 as administrative operations coordinator.

His first two seasons at Louisiana have resulted in good results. In 2011, he mentored cornerbacks Dwight Bentley and Melvin White, who helped the Cajuns secondary to return seven interceptions for touchdowns. Bentley was a third round selection by the Detroit Lions. In 2012, White teamed with Jemarlous Moten to give Louisiana two of the most versatile corners in the Sun Belt. White (Carolina Panthers) and Moten (Baltimore Ravens) each signed NFL free agent contracts.

Saunders sandwiched a pair of coaching terms at Ole Miss around three years as head football coach at Millsaps College (2003-05).

During his first employment at Ole Miss, which began in December 1998, Saunders established an acclaimed recruiting program and was lauded as one of the top nine recruiters in the nation by Tom Lemming of ESPN.com. He joined the Ole Miss athletic staff after working with Tennessee during their national championship season of 1998, where he assisted with on-campus recruiting.

Saunders worked two years as defensive backs coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas State (1996-97). He spent the 1995 season coaching safeties and special teams at Baylor.

From 1993-94, Saunders was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Nicholls State. It was there that he worked with Ragin' Cajuns head coach Mark Hudspeth, who was the Colonels wide receivers and tight ends coach in 1994.

From 1990 to 1992, Saunders coached the defensive line at Georgia Southern and helped lead the Eagles to the 1990 NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

From 1984 to 1989, Saunders coached defensive backs and receivers while serving as recruiting coordinator at Jacksonville State.

While at JSU, Saunders coached defensive back Eric Davis, who went on to earn NFL All-Pro honors in 1995 while playing for Super Bowl Champion San Francisco. Saunders also coached receiver Keith McKeller, who played in three Super Bowls with the Buffalo Bills.

A native of Douglasville, Ga., Saunders received his bachelor's degree from Auburn in 1982. He was a walk-on lineman for the Tigers.

He is married to the former Jan Perry and the couple have two children, Riley, a reserve quarterback for the Cajuns in 2012, and Kaylee

TROY WINGERTER
Director of Football Operations/Pro Liason

Former Louisiana standout Troy Wingerter entered into a new role with the Ragin' Cajuns football program in 2011, becoming the director of football operations for head coach Mark Hudspeth.

Wingerter started his career with the Louisiana Athletic Department in 1997. He was the tight ends coach as a graduate assistant from 1997-99.

Wingerter coached the defensive ends in 2001 under head coach Jerry Baldwin and served in the role of Cajuns' tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator from 2002-10 for Rickey Bustle. Wingerter was named Bustle's assistant head coach for the 2009 and 2010 season.

Wingerter helped developed the tight ends from a frequent red zone target for Cajuns quarterbacks to a legitimate weapon in the UL offense. Cajuns tight ends made 160 receptions for 2,283 yards with 22 touchdowns from 2008-10.

In 2009, tight end Luke Aubrey led the team in receptions while tight end Ladarius Green topped the team in yards. Green was one of just three underclassmen named to the 2009 Mackey Award Watch List.

In 2010, Green was one of just eight semifinalists for the prestigious Mackey Award, which is given to the nation's top tight tend. He was a first team All-Sun Belt selection, a first team All-Louisiana pick and garnered second team All-America honors by CBSSports.com and fourth team All-America accolades by Phil Steele.

Entering his senior season, Green was named to the 2011 Mackey Award Watch List and Bilitnekoff Award Watch List. Green was also tabbed as a Top 5 draft eligible tight end by ESPN.com insider Mel Kiper, Jr. and was named a preseason All-American by BleacherReport.com (1st Team), Athlon (2nd Team), GoDaddy.com (3rd Team), Phil Steele (4th Team) and CDSdraft.com (Honorable Mention).

Wingerter tutored a pair of red zone targets in Kevin Belton and Luke Aubrey in 2007 and 2008, respectively. Both players had six receptions, but each caught three for touchdowns. Wingerter coached Josh Joerg during his All-Sun Belt season in 2002.

After earning his bachelor's degree in 1993, Wingerter embarked on a four-year career in corporate business working in Lafayette, New Orleans, Colorado and Montana. Upon his return to UL, Wingerter earned a master's degree in education.

A native of New Orleans, Wingerter was a first-team All-Louisiana selection and an All-South Independent pick as a senior in 1991. He helped guide the Cajuns to three straight winning seasons during his first three years from 1987-89 and was a permanent team captain as a senior.

He was selected as a member of the all-time University of Louisiana football team as compiled by the Lafayette Daily Advertiser.

Wingerter and his wife, Cydra, have two sons, Holden and Aiden.

RYAN TRICHEL
Director of Player Personnel

Ryan Trichel begins his third season as a member of the Ragin' Cajuns support staff and his first as director of player personnel.

Trichel joined the staff in January, 2011 as assistant director of football operations and assistant recruiting coordinator. He was promoted to his current full-time position in January, 2013.

Trichel's efforts helping to organize the recruiting efforts of the Cajuns staff has paid big dividends. The 2012 recruiting class was ranked first among Sun Belt Conference schools and fifth among the non-BCS automatic qualifying programs by Scout.com., while 247 Sports had the class ranked 68th in the nation.

In his role as player personnel director, Trichel works closely with Coach Hudspeth to manage the day-to-day recruiting efforts, handling correspondence and managing a recruiting management program for the staff. He is responsible for designing all recruiting material and coordinating all on-campus recruiting events and visits, including the annual Cajuns Football Junior Day in 2013 when over 275 prospects attended from around the country.

Trichel maintains the XOS recruiting database, junior and senior recruiting boards and the team roster. He coordinates the social media efforts within the coaching staff.

Trichel's impact with the program goes beyond his recruiting role. He helps manage the Quarterback Club, a group of Cajuns supporters who provide additional funds and services to the program, and assists with the operation of all football summer camps and clinics.

As an undergraduate at Southeastern Louisiana University, Trichel worked for two years (2004-06) as an operations assistant in the athletic department, assisting in the game day operations for seven sports, including football.

Trichel's duties were wide-spread, from assisting with season ticket sales, game day parking and concessions to stadium set up and break down and video board operations.

Trichel graduated from SLU in 2006 with a degree in general management and enrolled in graduate school at Mississippi State, earning a master's degree in sports administration in 2008 and a second master's in business administration in 2010.

While at Mississippi State, Trichel worked for five years as an admissions assistant in the MSU Admissions Department, helping with the recruitment of prospective students. He handled on-campus recruiting visits, maintained the university's scholarship database and managed the recruiting efforts for international students.

An active member of the American Football Coaches Association, Trichel served on the Program Committee for the 2012 convention in Nashville, Tenn., helping to supervise panel discussions.

TOM RYBACKI
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Tom Rybacki returns for his third season as a defensive graduate assistant coach for the Ragin'Cajuns, working primarily with the linebackers.

In his first two seasons with the Cajuns, Rybacki has worked one-on-one with the outside linebackers. In 2011, his instruction helped Devon Lewis-Buchanan to make 78 tackles and 10.5 TFL and earn All-Sun Belt honors.

Rybacki came to Louisiana after spending six years at Jacksonville State (2005-10). After playing linebacker for the Gamecocks, Rybacki served as a student assistant coach from 2005-08 before taking over as a graduate assistant/cornerbacks coach for his final two seasons (2009-10).

At Jacksonville State, Rybacki guided cornerbacks T.J. Heath and A.J. Davis. Heath earned All-America honors in 2009 and went on to play with the Buffalo Bills while Davis earned a spot with the New Orleans Saints.

Led by a secondary that ranked eighth in the nation in passs defense, Jacksonville State earned a victory over Ole Miss in 2010.

The Huntsville, Ala. native holds a bachelor's degree in history (2004) and master's degree in public administration (2009), both from Jacksonville State. He also received a master's degree in education from Louisiana in 2013.

ZACH LOCHARD
Defensive Graduate Assistant

Zach Lochard returns for his second season as the graduate assistant coach for the Ragin' Cajuns defense, working as assistant defensive line and outside linebackers coach.

Lochard came to Louisiana in 2011 to serve as an intern for the strength and conditioning program and moved to the football staff for the 2012 campaign.

In his first season on the sidelines, Lochard worked primarily with the defensive line and aided in the emergence of Emeka Onyenekwu and Cordian Hagans, who combined to make 11.5 sacks and 22.5 TFL. Hagans signed a free agent contract with the Pittsburgh Steelers while Onyenekwu joined the Miami Dolphins.

A 2008 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado with a bachelor's degree in sports and exercise science, Lochard went on to earn a master's degree in human performance and physical education from Adams State in 2012. He is currently working towards completing the requirements for a doctorate in the Louisiana education leadership program.

Lochard began his coaching career as the assistant wide receivers coach at Northern Colorado in 2008. He moved to Western State College in 2009, serving as defensive backs coach in 2009 and tight ends coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2010.

In 2009, he is earned his certification from USA Weightlifting.

WILLIAM PEAGLER
Offensive Graduate Assistant

William Peagler is in is third season working with the Louisiana football program and his second as a graduate assistant coach assisting with the Ragin' Cajuns offense.

Peagler will once again assist Mitch Rodrigue with the offensive line, working primarily with the offensive tackles.

In 2012 season, Peagler worked with an offensive line that ranked 13th nationally, allowing only 13 sacks. The veteran offensive line helped the Cajuns average 193.6 yards rushing per game to rank 37th nationally and second in the Sun Belt Conference.

Peagler helped Leonardo Bates and Jaron Odom earn all-conference honors. Odom signed with the NFL's Carolina Panthers.

Peagler came to Lafayette in 2011 to serve as offensive quality control assistant, working with head coach Mark Hudspeth and the offensive coaching staff.

Peagler began his coaching career as a student assistant at Clemson from 2006-09, primarily working with the offense. He was part of the 2009 team that won the Atlantic Division, assisting with the national recruitment efforts that helped to bring three top-25 signing classes into the program.

In 2010, Peagler moved to Valdosta State, where he was tight ends coach for the squad that won the Gulf South Championship. Peagler holds a bachelor's degree in sport management from Clemson.

SEAN MURPHY
Offensive Graduate Assistant

Sean Murphy begins his second season on the Louisiana football coaching staff and his first as an offensive graduate assistant coach. He will assist Jorge Munoz in the coaching of the Louisiana wide receivers.

Murphy joined the program for the 2012 season as a student intern and focused on assisting offensive coordinator Jay Johnson and the rest of the offensive staff.

A three-year letterman in football from 2008-10 at Millsaps College in Jackson, Miss., Murphy was part of two SCAC championship teams. Sidelined by an injury as a senior in 2011, he served as a student assistant coach, working with the tight ends.

Murphy earned a bachelor's degree in history with a minor in education from Millsaps College in 2012. He is currently pursuing a master's of arts degree in secondary education teaching at Louisiana.

CARTER KNIGHT
Defensive Student/Recruiting Operations Assistant

Carter Knight joins the Ragin' Cajuns coaching staff for the 2013 season as a defensive student assistant.

He will work with the defensive coaching staff while also aiding assistant coach Reed Stringer and director of player personnel Ryan Trichel with recruiting arrangements.

A native of Lafayette and a 2011 graduate of Mandeville High School, Knight is majoring in kinesiology/sports management at Louisiana.

CARRIE PITRE
Administrative Assistant

Carrie Pitre is in her second season as the administrative assistant to head coach Mark Hudspeth and the football staff. She joined the staff on a temporary basis in July, 2012 and was added in a full-time capacity later in the year.

As an administrative assistant, Pitre is responsible for managing Coach Hudspeth's daily schedule and overseeing the administrative needs of the staff.

Pitre works with Coach Hudspeth to manage the day-to-day needs of the Quarterback Club, a group of Cajuns supporters who provide additional funds and services to the program.

A native of Mace, Brazil, Pitre moved to the Lafayette in 1994. She is attending South Louisiana CC and working on associate's degrees in both business and general studies with a concentration in business. She intends to pursue a bachelor's degree in web design

The former Carolina Reeder, she married Nick Pitre in 2011 and the couple live in Arnaudville.

HUNTER BONVILLAIN
Special Teams Student Assistant

Hunter Bonvillain is in his third season working with the Louisiana football program and his second as special teams student assistant. He assists Coach Hudspeth in all aspects of special teams preparation, including the daily position meetings and video sessions.

Bonvillain joined the support staff in 2011, working with the defensive coaching staff. He worked with the defensive line in 2011 and the safeties in 2012.

A 2011 graduate of Lafayette High School, Bonvillain was a three-year letterman in football, playing at center. He was part of two state finalist teams in baseball.

Bonvillain is majoring in health and physical education at Louisiana.

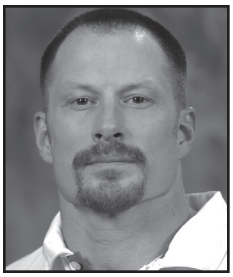
GARRETT KREAMER
Offensive Student Assistant

Garrett Kreamer returns for his second season as an offensive student assistant with the Ragin' Cajuns.

Kreamer aids coach Jorge Munoz working with the Louisiana wide receiver unit while also performing other functions for the offensive coaching staff.

In addition, Kreamer is active in coordinating the recruiting effort, assisting both recruiting coordinator Reed Stringer and director of player personnel Ryan Trichel in performing the day-to-day functions and handling recruiting arrangements.

A 2009 graduate of Comeaux High School, Kreamer lettered four times in football, starting at quarterback as both a junior and senior in 2007-08. He is pursuing a bachelor's degree in healthy and physical education at Louisiana.



RUSTY WHITT
Head Strength & Conditioning Coach

Rusty Whitt began his tenure as the University of Louisiana's head strength and conditioning coach in October 2010.

Whitt, who served in the United States Army as a Senior Special Forces Communication Sergeant in the 10th Special Forces Group, came to Louisiana from Rice University where he served as assistant coordinator of strength and conditioning from March 2009 until his hiring at UL.

At Rice, Whitt designed and implemented year-round strength, speed, mobility, cardiovascular conditioning and injury rehabilitation programs for football, baseball, track and field and swimming.

Prior to joining the staff at Rice, he served in the United States Army from Aug. 2003-Jan. 2009. He was deployed to Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF) V and VI.

Whitt developed and initiated a comprehensive pre-deployment conditioning program for his Special Forces Team prior to and during OIF V and VI. He received a combat infantry badge, two Iraqi campaign medals and an Army commendation medal with valor.

Whitt began his strength and conditioning career with graduate assistantships at Midwestern State University (Aug. 1995-June 1996) and the University of Texas (June 1996-May 1997). He performed an internship in the strength and conditioning department at the U.S. Olympic Training Center (May-Sept. 1997).

Whitt had stints as an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator for football at William and Mary (Dec. 1997-Aug. 1998) and Louisville (Aug.-Dec. 1998) before being named the head strength and conditioning coach at Sam Houston State in Dec. 1998.

At SHSU, Whitt served as an instructor in the kinesiology department and assisted in the design of a new weight facility. He also worked with current Ragin' Cajuns men's basketball coach Bob Marlin until Aug. 2003.

Over his career, Whitt has participated in the 1997 Fiesta Bowl, 1998 Motor City Bowl, I-AA football playoffs and NCAA men's basketball tournament.

Whitt earned his bachelor's degree in political science and administration from Abilene Christian University in 1994 and his master's degree in kinesiology from Texas in 1997.

He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

JAKE RAYBURN
Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Jake Rayburn is in his seventh year as an as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Ragin' Cajuns.

He joined the University of Louisiana strength and conditioning staff in July 2006.

In his role, he assists in the day-to-day development and implementation of the off-season, summer and in-season workouts for the Cajuns football team. His other duties at UL include overseeing the strength and conditioning programs for baseball, softball, golf, soccer and tennis.

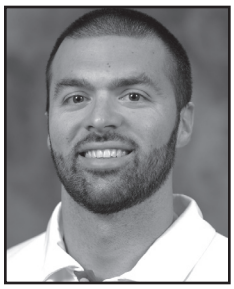
In the summer of 2006, Rayburn came to UL from Tulane, where he served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for two years (2004-06). During that time, he worked with women's basketball, soccer and track and field.

Following the devastation of Hurricane Katrina in 2005, he was relocated to Ruston, La., with the football team and was placed in charge of the in-season strength and conditioning program and game-day duties. Upon returning to campus, he conducted off-season workouts for men's basketball.

Prior to arriving at Tulane, Rayburn served as a graduate assistant at Middle Tennessee from 2001-04, assisting with workouts for all 15 sports. During that time, he worked directly with men's & women's golf and tennis.

Rayburn is originally from Martin, Tenn., and graduated from Tennessee-Martin in 2001. He also completed an internship at Tennessee during the summer of 2001, where he assisted with football and men's basketball.

He and his wife Andrea have two daughters, Callie and Hailey.



JASON MANIKOWSKI
Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach

Jason Manikowski arrived at the University of Louisiana in June 2011 to serve as an assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Manikowski joined the Cajuns' strength staff after spending the previous 17 months as a strength and conditioning graduate assistant at TCU.

While at TCU, Manikowski was the head strength coach for the Horned Frogs women's basketball and equestrian programs. He designed all of the strength, speed and agility programs for women's basketball, while assisting with football.

In the summer of 2009, Manikowski served as an intern at TCU where he helped demonstrate proper technique in performing Olympic lifts and improving speed development.

Prior to working at TCU, he was employed as a physical education teacher at St. Catherine's High School in Racine, Wisc.

In 2007, Manikowski was the assistant strength and conditioning coach for football at his alma mater, Wisconsin–Oshkosh.

Manikowski holds a bachelor's degree in physical education and health education from UW-Oshkosh, where he was a four-year starting free safety for the Titans. He was a second team Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference all-conference selection in 2005 and earned a preseason All-American accolade going into his senior campaign in 2006.

SCOTT FARMER
Director of Athletics

Scott Farmer has over a quarter of a century working in all aspects of intercollegiate athletics, perfectly preparing him for when he took over as Louisiana's director of athletics in October 2011.

Now in his seventh year working with the Ragin' Cajuns, the first three as senior associate athletic director, Farmer's knowledge and insight has already impacted the Louisiana athletic programs.

In his first six years with the Ragin' Cajuns, Farmer has:

• played an integral role in establishing and growing the Ragin' Cajuns Athletic Foundation in 2009. The RCAF works to enhance the department's annual operating budget and provide financial support to Louisiana's 16 varsity programs. In 2012-13, the RCAF was responsible for raising approximately $5 million;

• instrumental in developing the $115 million Athletic Facilities Master Plan, which was announced in March, 2013 and included major facility improvements that will assist all 16 sports. Tier one of the plan is underway, featuring the addition of office space and locker rooms at the Track-Soccer complex, creation of seating in the north end zone of Cajun Field and the addition of the Athletics Practice Facility adjacent to the Leon Moncla Indoor Practice Facility.

• coordinated facility improvements that included the addition of new artificial playing surfaces in Cajun Field, M.L. "Tigue" Moore Field and the Leon Moncla Indoor Practice Facility, renovating Lamson Park and the Cox Communications Athletic Complex and adding new scoreboards for baseball, tennis and track/soccer;

• been responsible for the hiring of coaches Mark Hudspeth (football), Bob Marlin (men's basketball), Garry Brodhead (women's basketball) and Lon Badeaux (track), who have stabilized their respective programs and provided Louisiana with strong performances in their inaugural years;

• made Louisiana athletic events more accessible to fans by creating the Ragin' Cajuns Network, which annually televises events to the New Orleans, Baton Rouge and Lafayette markets. He also expanded the Ragin' Cajuns Radio Network to include stations in the five-largest metropolitan areas in the state;

• the driving force behind the creation of GEAUX, a football game day program that has grown to 116 pages of features, profiles, statistics and other information for Cajuns football fans. The program sold out its advertising space in both 2012 and 2013.

• has worked to more than double the number of football season tickets sold, from just under 4,800 in 2007 to a record 10,912 in 2012;

• completed a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Softball Committee, serving as the chair in both 2011 and 2012.

Farmer is in the second year of a five-year term representing the Sun Belt Conference on the prestigious NCAA Leadership Council and also serves as the chair of the Sun Belt Conference Athletic Directors.

Farmer's first two years as athletic director resulted in great success for the Ragin' Cajuns. In 2011-12, eight of the 16 UL programs advanced to postseason play in their respective sports, including football making its first bowl appearance since 1970 and men's basketball hosting a postseason game on campus for the first time since 1985. Last year, baseball and softball made appearances in the NCAA Championships and football repeated as New Orleans Bowl champs.

In the classroom, Ragin' Cajuns student-athletes recorded the two highest semesters in school history, including a 2.964 GPA during the 2012 fall semester. All 16 teams have an Academic Progress Rate score well above the NCAA requirements for their respective sports

Farmer's efforts have helped attendance at Louisiana events to reach an all-time high with both baseball and softball leading the Sun Belt in attendance for the 14th straight year. Football set the Sun Belt records for average and total attendance and led all FBS schools with an increased average attendance of 11,788 in 2011. Cajuns fans dominated the New Orleans Bowl each year, leading to consecutive record crowds of 42,841 in 2011 and 48,828. Those marks shattered the old bowl record for attendance by more than 18,000.

Farmer came to Lafayette after eight years at Troy University (1999-2007) where he worked as senior associate athletic director. He helped the Trojans make the move to the NCAA Division I-FBS level and the Sun Belt Conference.

At Troy, Farmer oversaw a massive renovation of the athletic facilities, including an $18 million renovation of football's Veterans Memorial Stadium, new facilities for softball, tennis, track and soccer plus facility upgrades for both basketball and baseball.

A native of Ormond Beach, Fla., Farmer was a four-year letterman in swimming at Georgia Southern, being named the school's male scholar-athlete of the year in 1985. He received his bachelor's degree in health and physical education in 1986 and a master's in sports management in 1987.

After graduating, Farmer began his career in athletics as head women's swimming coach at Georgia Southern in 1986. He led the Eagles to eight conference titles in nine seasons, compiling a 65-25 record (.722) to become the winningest coach in program history.

Promoted to a dual-position of assistant athletic director for sports programs, student-athlete services and event management in 1988, he left coaching following the 1995-96 season to concentrate on his duties overseeing student-athlete services.

During his tenure at Georgia Southern – both as a student and as an administrator – the Eagles won 4 NCAA FCS (Division I-AA) football national championships.

Farmer's introduction to athletics came at an early age. His father, Bud Farmer, served as director of athletics and head swimming coach at Daytona Beach Community College (now Daytona State College). Bud Farmer was inducted into the National Junior College Swimming Hall of Fame in 2013.

Farmer is married to the former Jackie Davis, a record-setting swimmer who he met at Georgia Southern. The couple have two children, a daughter, Kaitlin and a son, Kyle.

Formed in 1976 the Sun Belt Conference quickly rose to the greatest heights of collegiate athletics and the league continues to find itself at the pinnacle of competition as a member of the 10-league alliance of the Bowl Championship Series and soon-to-be College Football Playoff.

Because of its status as a member of the Football Bowl Subdivision, the Sun Belt Conference has a permanent seat on the NCAA's 18-member Board of Directors. As a result, the conference has a crucial voice on some of the most pressing issues in college athletics and will always have a role in the implementation of any future NCAA legislation and guidelines.

The conference continues to utilize television to grow and promote the league and its member institutions. The Sun Belt Conference signed a new multi-year agreement with ESPN, Inc. in 2012 that results in unprecedented national coverage for the league. Fans of the Sun Belt Conference can look forward to seeing more Sun Belt teams playing on national television on ESPN and ESPN2 and additionally the ESPN deal will result in more coverage on ESPNU. ESPN will continue to televise the conference's men's basketball championship game for the 32nd straight season in 2013, marking its longest affiliation with any conference in the country.

The conference's regional television partnership with Comcast/Charter Sports Southeast (CSS) and Cox Sports Television (CST) enables live telecasts of Sun Belt events to reach millions of households. The addition of volleyball, baseball and softball to the conference's television package has resulted in more national and regional television exposure for the league than at any time in its history.

Success has been easy to find in recent years.

Over the last five years the Sun Belt Conference ranks sixth out of the 11 FBS conferences in postseason bowl game winning percentage. In fact, the Sun Belt Conference ranks ahead of noted "BCS AQ" leagues – the ACC, Pac-12 and the Big Ten.

The Sun Belt Conference maintains tie-ins with the GoDaddy Bowl and the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl. A team from the Sun Belt Conference has played in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl since its inception in 2001. The SBC has won four consecutive R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl games and six out of the last seven. The GoDaddy bowl, meanwhile, has a four-year agreement in place with the Sun Belt Conference and Mid-American Conference to provide teams for the game.

Sun Belt student-athletes have a history of performing well in the class room as well. With sights set on raised benchmarks, 96.2% of teams that will make up the 2013-14 Sun Belt Conference are performing above the future Academic Progress Rate (APR) standard of 930 as the NCAA released its latest figures in June. Beginning with 2014-15 championships, teams must earn a 930 four-year average APR or a 940 average over the most recent two years to participate in championships.

Prominent Sun Belt alumni include Lyndon B. Johnson, former President of the United States (Texas State), former All-Star baseball player Luis Gonzalez (South Alabama), former member of the United States Senate and House of Representatives John Breaux (Louisiana), country music superstar Tim McGraw (ULM), CEO of Duck Commander and Buck Commander Willie Robertson (ULM) and DeMarcus Ware, an All-Pro NFL linebacker (Troy).

Sun Belt 2012-13 in Review

For the first time in league history, the SBC sent four teams to postseason bowl games. The SBC also posted a 7-2 record against Conference USA and tallied the highest non-conference win total in league history (19). This success led to the conference having its highest ever ranking in the BCS computer poll average – finishing ahead of both CUSA and the Mountain West.

League-champion Arkansas State defeated #25 Kent State in the GoDaddy.com Bowl, 17-13, and Louisiana won its second straight R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl with a 43-34 win over C-USA's East Carolina. The SBC has won four consecutive R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl games and six out of the last seven New Orleans Bowls with opponents having come from CUSA, the Mid-American Conference and the MWC.

The 2012-13 men's basketball season saw the league put together its best non-conference RPI in four years while sending two teams to the NCAA Men's Basketball Championship.

WKU earned its second consecutive trip to the NCAA postseason after winning the SBC Championship title and the league's automatic qualifier. Middle Tennessee, meanwhile, earned an at large bid to the NCAA Tournament, which marked the first time since 1989 that the Blue Raiders reached the tournament.

Notably, the Sun Belt's men's and women's basketball teams combined for a record tying seven postseason appearances this past season.

Of course, football and basketball weren't the only sports that saw success.

A Sun Belt Conference record-tying four baseball teams (Louisiana, Troy, South Alabama and Florida Atlantic) were selected to an NCAA Regional in 2013, marking the third time this has occurred and first since 2002.

2013 saw one of the best seasons on record for baseball as four of the league's ten teams posted 40 or more wins for the first time since the 1990 season. Those outstanding win totals helped the SBC rank fifth in the country in RPI behind only the ACC, SEC, Pac-12 and Big 12.

In total, Sun Belt baseball teams went 163-102 during the 2013 season in non-conference action with 13 wins over top-ranked opponents in 2013, including NCAA Tournament No. 1 overall seed, North Carolina.

For the first time in Sun Belt Conference softball history, three teams earned bids to the NCAA Division I Softball Championship including Louisiana, South Alabama and WKU.

The Ragin' Cajuns swept through the NCAA Redional in Baton Rouge, winning three games by shutout, including back-to-back victories over No. 9 LSU. A week later in Ann Arbor, the Cajuns came within an inning of advancing to the Women's College World Series for the fourth time in program history.

South Alabama won its second consecutive SBC Championship title and hosted an NCAA Regional in just its seventh-year as a program. WKU earned its first-ever SBC Softball Championship by winning the 2013 regular season.

SBC teams owned nine wins over the USA Today/NFCA Division I Top-25.

On the volleyball court, WKU earned its first NCAA Tournament win in school history, defeating Loyola Marymount 3-0 in the first round. It was the team's seventh NCAA Tournament appearance, a SBC best.

The Lady Toppers concluded their 2012 season with a 33-4 record and 15-0 in league play. The 33 wins were tied for the most in school history. The 2012 squad also posted the longest winning streak in school history at 25-straight wins, as it went 75-5 in sets during the streak. WKU dropped only one set in conference play.

In total the SBC posted an 86-82 non-conference record including wins over No. 10 Dayton and No. 22 Michigan.

For the third consecutive year, the Sun Belt Conference had three student athletes represent the league at the NCAA Cross Country Championships.

Joseph Chebet of WKU, who earned SBC Most Outstanding Performer, was also named an All-American after finishing 35th in the 10k race at the NCAA Championship. On the women's side, SBC Most Outstanding Performer Katharine Showalter of Georgia State and Kristina Aubert of Arkansas State advanced to the NCAA Championship.

Sun Belt Conference men's golf saw two teams and threee individuals selected to play in the NCAA Championship.

Georgia State men's tennis seniors Lucas Santa Ana and Victor Valente rallied to a 6-4, 7-6 (6) win against the No. 9-ranked doubles pair of junior Tom Jomby and freshman Kevin Lai (Kentucky) in the first round of the 2013 NCAA Doubles Championship.

GSU finished at No. 61 in the men's and No. 75 in the women's in the final Intercollegiate Tennis Association Rankings. The Panther men's team won the SBC title in their first year.

In indoor track WKU's David Mokone, Arkansas State's Sharika Nelvis and Middle Tennessee's Ann Dudley qualified for the NCAA Championship. Nelvis finished 16th in the long jump with a 5.72m leap. She then took 11th in the 200 meters with a time of 23.53. Mokone finished in 14th in the 800 meters after earning All-American second team honors.

At the 2013 NCAA Outdoor Track and Field Championship 11 Sun Belt student-athletes were named All-Americans. Among the highlights, ASU's Nelvis competed in the finals of the 100-meter hurdles.

Sun Belt student-athletes have a history of performing well in the class room as well.

With sights set on raised benchmarks, 96.2% of teams that will make up the 2013-14 Sun Belt Conference are performing above the future Academic Progress Rate (APR) standard of 930 as the NCAA released its latest figures in June.

ships, teams must earn a minimum 900 four-year APR or a 930 average over the most recent two years to be eligible to participate. For 2014-15 championships, teams must earn a 930 four-year average APR or a 940 average over the most recent two years to participate in championships. In 2015-16 and beyond, teams must earn a four-year APR of 930 to compete in championships. 153 of 159 Sun Belt teams are currently performing above the 930 benchmark.

Each year, the NCAA tracks the classroom performance of student-athletes on every Division I team through the annual scorecard of academic achievement, known as APR. The rate measures eligibility, graduation and retention each semester or quarter and provides a clear picture of the academic performance in each sport. The most recent APRs are multi-year rates based on scores from the 2008-09, 2009-10, 2010-11 and 2011-2012 academic years.

While the accomplishments of the Sun Belt's student-athletes and coaches deserve great praise, so to do the league's administrators who have helped set the tone for the future of the league.

"We have never been as strong as we are now academically and financially and I believe we are getting stronger all the time athletically," outgoing Sun Belt President and Troy University Chancellor Dr. Jack Hawkins, Jr. said recently. "I truly believe that the best is yet to come."

March 27, 2012 proved to be busy day in the Sun Belt Conference, culminating in the additions of Appalachian State and Georgia Southern as all-sports members and Idaho and New Mexico State as football playing members.

Both Appalachian State and Georgia Southern bring with them highly successfully football programs and each team will begin the process of transitioning to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) immediately. The 2014 Sun Belt football season will mark the debut of both in the league schedule and standings. Additionally, both the Mountaineers and Eagles will be able to compete for the league championship in football for the 2014 season. Both teams will first be eligible to compete in a spot for a postseason bowl game come the 2015 season.

Idaho and New Mexico State are familiar partners of the Sun Belt Conference, having been football members from the league's inaugural year of football in 2001 through the 2004 season. Both members played an integral part of forming the Sun Belt Conference for football and now add strength to the league.

With new members and a new mindset also comes a new logo and mantra.

The conference unveiled its new logo and brand after a nearly yearlong examination of the impact, sustainability and core values associated with the Sun Belt Conference.

"Together We Rise" is the new mantra for the conference and it is the foundation and essence of the contemporary logo that the league will now be identified with.

Understanding market place competition and the need to standout from its competition, the Sun Belt Conference began examining and defining its brand identity and the need for a complimentary logo to embody that brand.

"The unveiling of our new logo comes after months of review of how we wanted to express the 'new' Sun Belt Conference," said Sun Belt Conference Commissioner Karl Benson. "It is a very exciting chance for us to display the opportunity and optimism that exists in the Sun Belt Conference as we move forward."

The league office and its member institutions worked with SME, Inc. for the project. SME is a renowned strategic brand development firm which was responsible for the rebranding of the Pac-12 Conference and Big Sky Conference among other prominent collegiate and professional sports properties.

The overarching goal of the process was to create a bold and fresh new identity built upon a foundation of unity that corresponds to the Sun Belt Conference's future success and also honors the foundation built over the past 37 years.

The Sun Belt Conference will contest the 2013 football season with eight members – Arkansas State, Georgia State, Louisiana, Louisiana-Monroe, South Alabama, Texas State, Troy and Western Kentucky University. UALR and UT Arlington compete as non-football members.

Fresh off a 2011 season that ended with a fairy tale ending, the question that Ragin' Cajuns fans had was, "what will Louisiana do for an encore".

Everything had gone right in 2011. Injuries were kept to a minimum and every trick play was executed perfectly.

Head coach Mark Hudspeth would not be afforded such good luck in his second season. That would not deter the Cajuns from matching the success, albeit through different methods.

When Louisiana lost record-setting quarterback Blaine Gautier in late-September, sophomore Terrance Broadway stepped in and thrived.

Starting running back Montrel Carter suffered a knee injury in the season opener. The trio of sophomore Alonzo Harris and freshmen Effrem Reed and Torrey Pierce took over to help the Cajuns finish second in the league in rushing.

The Cajuns defense started the year desperately looking for leaders to step up as only three starters returned from 2011.

Step up they did.

Justin Anderson, who was a last-minute addition to the New Orleans Bowl starting lineup in 2011, led the way defensively with 109 tackles. Jemarlous Moten and Melvin White, two of the returners, supplied steady play to the secondary while fifth-year senior Rodney Gillis stepped into his own, making 75 tackles and a team-high five interceptions.

Terrance Broadway responded to being thrust into the starting quarterback spot because of injury by setting the school record with 3,611 yards of total offense.

The defensive line had to be rebuilt after losing all three starters. Seniors Emeka Onyeneku and Cordian Hagans and sophomores Justin Hamilton and Christian Ringo evolved into one of the strongest front lines in the league. They were so dominant that the Cajuns defense switched to four-man front midway through the season in attempt to keep them on the field more.

The Cajuns matched the school record for wins in a season for the second straight year, going 9-4 in back-to-back seasons for the first time in the 111-year history of the program and winning consecutive New Orleans Bowl championships.

In 13 months, the Cajuns went from having a 42-year bowl-less drought to joining Alabama, Boise State and Oregon as one of eight teams in the country to have consecutive nine win seasons that included bowl victories each year.

Harry Peoples led the Cajuns with 64 catches for 817 yards and five touchdowns. He scored on this 10-yard run in the New Orleans Bowl.

A Dominant Debut

The much-anticipated 2012 season kicked off at Cajun Field against Lamar on Sept. 1 and the tone was immediately set.

On the field, the Cajuns dominated, scoring 40 first half points then coasted in the second stanza to a 40-0 win. Hudspeth utilized his bench, sending 66 players onto the field during the contest – the most in his short Cajuns tenure.

Brett Baer tied a school record scoring 16 points, including a career-high four field goals, while four Cajuns each scored one touchdown to key the win. Hamilton led the defense, making four tackles for loss and forcing a pair of fumbles, earning him Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week honors.

In the stands, a crowd of 25,803 turned out despite miserably wet conditions in the Acadiana area.

The Cajuns ventured to Troy, Ala., the following week to open Sun Belt Conference play. A 37-24 win over the Trojans improved the squad to 2-0 and the loss snapped Troy's streak of 25 consecutive wins in home openers.

The game served as the coming out party for Broadway, who stepped in for Gautier when the senior bruised his ribs late in the first quarter. Broadway completed 10-of-15 passes for 148 yards, including a nine-yard TD pass to Harry Peoples.

Alonzo Harris showed why he was the league's freshman of the year in 2011, rushing 21 times for a season-high 137 yards and a touchdown. Baer added three more field goals to break the SBC record with 18 consecutive field goals made going back to the 2011 season.

A Bad Day In Stillwater

For the second straight season, Louisiana's attempt to post a perfect record in September was denied because of a loss at Oklahoma State. The Cowboys led from wire-to-wire in a 65-24 decision over the Cajuns.

Gautier returned to the lineup and after a slow start, finished strong. He was 16-for-31 for 236 yards and a touchdown passing and he rushed for a touchdown as well. Javone Lawson caught eight passes for 92 yards.

On a down side, Baer's consecutive field goal streak came to an end at 18 when his 44-yard attempt in the second quarter slid just outside the left up-right.

A Broadway Debut

Louisiana returned to Cajun Field to continue Sun Belt play against FIU on Sept. 29. The Cajuns used a dominating 48-20 win over the preseason favorite Panthers to improve to 3-1.

The victory was costly as Gautier broke his left (throwing) hand in the first quarter, sidelining him for most of the season and turning the offense over to Broadway.

Broadway took over in full stride, throwing for 228 yards while rushing for 28 yards and a pair of scores. Harry Peoples was the favorite target again, catching 10 passes for 151 yards, including a 78-yard touchdown grab.

The 67th annual Homecoming game was next with Tulane visiting Lafayette for the first time since 2000. The Cajuns did not roll out the welcome mat for their guests, rushing for 294 yards while holding the Green Wave to only 53 in a 41-13 rout.

Harris led the rushing attack with 123 yards and a touchdown while freshman Effrem Reed had his most productive day, picking up 85 yards in 12 carries. Not to be outdone, Lawson made four catches for 82 yards, including a pair of acrobatic touchdowns grabs.

The defense stood out again. Justin Anderson returned an interception 38 yards for a second quarter touchdown and Rodney Gillis made his third interception at home in as many games.

Cajuns Struggle In Mid-Week Games

The Ragin' Cajuns stepped away from their traditional Saturday schedule, playing a pair of Tuesday night league games that were televised on ESPN2.

Broadway threw for 265 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 84 yards and a score, but it wasn't enough as UL dropped a 30-23 decision at North Texas.

With Broadway breaking free for a 75-yard touchdown run and later throwing a 10 yard scoring pass to Peoples, the Cajuns built a 20-6 lead early in the third quarter.

With Harris and Peoples sidelined late in the game, the Cajuns couldn't sustain the lead and needed a 47-yard field goal by Baer to tie the game at 23-23 with three minutes left.

Emeka Onyenkwu earned first team All-Sun Belt honors after making a team-high 14 TFL, including a pair of quarterback sacks at Florida.

North Texas took the lead right back on a 78-yard touchdown pass with 1:54 left. The Cajuns turned the ball over on its final possession to end the game.

The much-anticipated Cajun Field showdown with Arkansas State did not go well for Louisiana.

The Cajuns fell behind 20-0 just one minute into the second quarter and could not recover, losing 50-27 to slip to 4-3 overall and 2-2 in league play.

Louisiana didn't go down without a fight, however, as Broadway completed 28-of-39 passes for a career-high 374 yards and three touchdowns. With both Lawson and Peoples out of the lineup with injuries, Darryl Surgent made five catches for 107 yards and two touchdowns and Jamal Robinson added five grabs for 106 yards.

James Butler, who was one of UL's top receivers as a freshman in 2010 but missed all of 2011 with a knee injury, caught a four-yard touchdown pass in the final seconds of the game.

Nothing Like A Rival To Break A Slump

An extra week to prepare for the annual Battle of the Bayou against ULM was just what the Cajuns needed to help break a two-game losing streak and get back into the Sun Belt title chase.

Over 40 minutes of possession time and 607 yards of total offense didn't hurt either.

Broadway accounted for a personal-best 460 yards of total offense (373 passing, 87 rushing) and engineered six scoring drives of 75 yards or more. As a result, the Cajuns offense controlled the game, winning 40-24 to hand the Warhawks their first league loss – and only loss at Malone Stadium – of the year.

Trailing 14-10 in the second quarter, Broadway threw touchdown passes to Jamal Robinson and Peoples to put UL ahead for good.

The Cajuns put the game away at the start of the fourth quarter when Jacob Maxwell caught a one-yard TD pass from Broadway to complete a 17-play, 99-yard drive that used up 9:33.

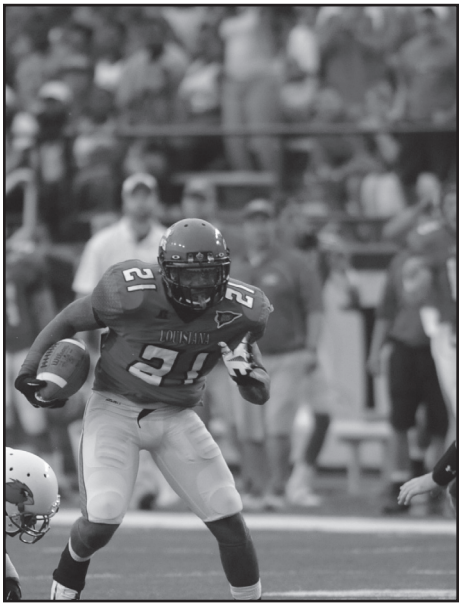
Robinson earned Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Week honors after making three catches for 153 yards, including touchdowns of 52 and 81 yards.

Heartbreak In The Swamp

With a 5-3 record, the Cajuns took a break from league action to play their final non-conference game of the year, traveling to Gainesville, Fla., to face No. 6 Florida.

Louisiana gave Florida all they could handle before falling in the final seconds, 27-20.

Trailing 13-3 early in the second half, the Cajuns struck. Alonzo Harris capped a 77-yard drive with a two-yard touchdown run to pull Louisiana to within 13-10. With Florida forced to punt on its next possession, Bradley Brown broke free up the middle to block the Gator punt and Blake Comminie returned the kick 22 yards to give Louisiana a 17-13 lead.



Rodney Gillis took advantage of his first opportunity to start, leading the team with five interceptions.

The Ragin' Cajuns couldn't convert a first-and-goal at the Florida seven yard line at start of the fourth quarter and had to settle for a 22-yard field goal by Baer to push the lead to 20-13.

After Florida tied the game at 20-20 with 1:42 left, the Ragin' Cajuns opted to play for overtime, but Brett Baer's punt was blocked by Loucheiz Purifoy and returned 36 yards by Jelani Jenkins for the game-winning score.

Lost in the defeat was a superb game by the Louisiana defense which limited the high-powered Gators to 149 yards rushing and 311 yards of total offense. Emeka Onyenekwu made a career-high nine tackles, including 2.5 quarterback sacks to earn Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week honors.

A Comeback To Remember

The heartbreaking loss to Florida brought the Cajuns together, helping them to focus on their team goals of getting to a bowl game.

A nip-and-tuck game against Western Kentucky came down to the wire. This time, the Cajuns prevailed. Louisiana drove 83 yards in the final two minutes to claim a 31-27 win over the Hilltoppers, securing bowl eligibility for a second straight year.

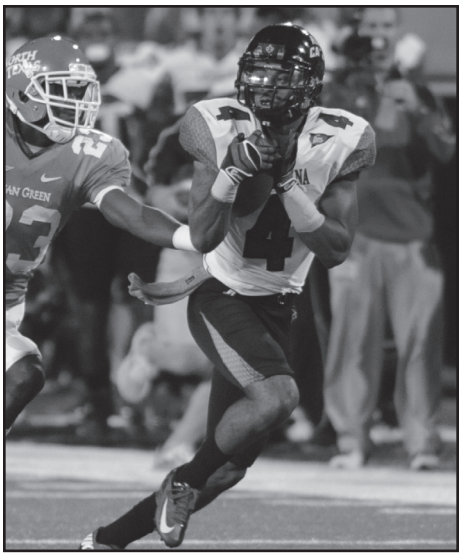
The Cajuns running game continued to excel as both Broadway and Harris surpassed the 100-yard rushing mark.

Broadway, who was 23-for-33 passing for 258 yards, rushed 14 times for 145 yards and a touchdown, while Harris carried 10 times for 104 yards.

Trailing 27-17 with 6:00 left, the offense came to life. Broadway led a 72-yard scoring drive, throwing the final four yards to Robinson to drop the Cajuns deficit to 27-24.

Needing a defensive stop following a failed onside kick, the Cajuns defense came through by holding the Hilltoppers without a first down on a drive for the first time all night. WKU's punt was downed at the UL 7 with 1:32 to play.

Harry Peoples, who caught 13 passes for 144 yards in the game, started the game-winning drive by making three grabs totaling 44 yards to move the ball into WKU territory. Three plays later, Broadway scrambled up the middle for the final 14 yards to put the Cajuns ahead with 38 seconds left.



Javone Lawson ended his Cajuns career ranked fifth all-time with 2,107 yards receiving and sixth with 134 catches.

Finishing Strong To Be NOLA Bound

The Cajuns closed the home schedule with a 52-30 thumping of Sun Belt newcomer South Alabama to improve to 7-4 on the year and 5-2 in league play.

The Senior Night victory celebrated the playing careers of 18 Ragin' Cajuns. That wasn't the only celebration that took place as minutes following the win, New Orleans Bowl president Jay Cicero formally invited Louisiana to return to New Orleans to play in the bowl game at the Mercdes-Benz Superdome on Dec. 22.

The Cajuns held South Alabama to a season-low 28 yards rushing, marking the fifth time during the year that UL held an opponent to less than 100 yards on the ground. Offensively, Louisiana totaled 538 yards of offense with Broadway completing 11-of-19 passes for 305 yards and a pair of scores.

Six different Cajuns scored touchdowns in the game, including a pair by freshman Effrem Reed.

Blaine Gautier returned for the first time since early October, throwing an 18-yard touchdown pass to Jacob Maxwell on his first drive. Senior Yobes Walker closed the scoring with 3:33 left.

With the bowl bid in hand, the Cajuns traveled to Florida Atlantic on Dec. 1 for the regular season finale, upending the Owls, 35-21.

The win gave Louisiana back-to-back eight win seasons for the first time in program history and in second place in the Sun Belt with a 6-2 record.

The running game again took center stage as Harris and Broadway combined to rush for 250 yards and four touchdowns.

Broadway scored on a 77-yard run on the third play of the game to open the scoring, part of a 123-yard rushing performance by the sophomore. Harris took over after that, carrying 21 times for 127 yards and a career-high three touchdowns.

Not to be outdone, the Louisiana defense forced three turnovers, blocked a field goal and stopped the Owls three times on downs, including on each of the final two possessions in the game.

Rodney Gillis intercepted his team-high fifth pass of the season while Justin Anderson made nine tackles to finish the regular season with a team-best 101 tackles.

At Home In The Dome

The Cajuns once again painted the-French Quarter red in their return trip to the New Orleans Bowl, resulting in a record crowd of 48,828.

Ragin' Cajuns fans flooded into the Crescent City. UL was credited with selling 21,104 tickets directly with countless more fans buying through the bowl, resulting in a sea of red throughout the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

The crowd broke the previous record of 42,481 set when the Cajuns faced San Diego State in 2011 and was only the second crowd above 30,500 in the 12-year history of the bowl.

The Ragin' Cajuns responded by dominating East Carolina, 43-34.

Broadway threw for 316 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 108 yards and another score to earn MVP honors.

The 424 yards of total offense allowed the sophomore to break Blaine Gautier's school record for total offense in a season with 3,611 yards.

Harris closed out his sophomore season in fine fashion, rushing 21 times for 120 yards and a pair of scores, including a 68-yard burst in the second quarter that put Louisiana ahead, 28-7.

Two quick touchdowns by ECU closed the gap before Baer closed the first half with a 50-yard field goal as

Deja Vu For Baer In New Orleans: One of the most interesting moments in the New Orleans Bowl came late in the first half. With Louisiana leading 28-21, the Ragin' Cajuns took over the ball at their own 20 with 37 seconds left. Terrance Broadway adeptly moved UL into field goal position. When Baer took the field with four seconds left, he found himself in the exact same position as he did one year earlier, when he connected on a 50-yard field goal as time expired to give UL a 32-30 win over San Diego State. Baer had the same snapper (John Broussard) and holder (Brady Thomas) and was kicking towards the north goal post with four seconds left in the half and the ball was on the 33. The only differences were that it was the first half instead of the second and Baer was kicking from the middle of the field instead of the left hash. Baer made both kicks time expired to make it a 31-21 game.

Brett Baer's 50-yard field goal at the end of the first half in the New Orleans Bowl was eerily similar to his game-winner from 2012.

The Pirates scored the first 10 points of the second half to tie the game at 31-31 before Louisiana took the lead for good on a 14-yard Broadway touchdown pass to Javone Lawson with 3:07 left in the third quarter.

Baer took over from their, connecting on field goals from 25 and 39 yards in the fourth quarter, the last one putting the game away with 10 seconds left.

The game served as the final contest for the 18 Cajun seniors, several of whom impacted the decision.

Baer scored 14 points to tie the school record for points in a season, joining Cajun legends Tyrell Fenroy (2008) and Brian Mitchell (1989) with 114 points in a season. He closed his career as one of the most accurate kickers in NCAA history, making a school-record 45 kicks in 50 attempts (.900).

Gautier, who missed most of the season with a broken wrist, received a standing ovation when he entered the game in the second quarter and engineered a 98-yard scoring drive.

Receivers Harry Peoples and Lawson each made touchdown catches, finishing the year as only the third set of receivers in school history to have over 100 catches each in a career.

Offensive tackles Leonardo Bates and Jaron Odom helped the Cajuns offense amass 591 yards of total offense.

Cornerback Jermarlous Moten picked off the fourth pass of the season and seventh of his career while defensive linemen Emeka Onyenekwu and Cordian Hagans each made a tackle for loss to finish the year ranked in the top 15 in the Sun Belt.

Honors For The Cajuns

The success of the Cajuns on the field led to postseason honors for several team members.

Brett Baer, Jemarlous Moten and Emeka Onyenekwu each earned first team All-Sun Belt honors, with Baer being selected as both a kicker and a punter. Harry Peoples, Andre Huval and Leonardo Bates were second team picks and Terrance Broadway and Jaron Odom the honorable mention choices.

Eight Cajuns earned invitations to NFL camps.

GAME 1
Louisiana 40, Lamar 0

Sept. 1 Cajun Field

LAFAYETTE, La. -- Aided by the foot of Brett Baer and a defense that forced four first half turnovers, Louisiana scored 40 first-half points and coasted to a 40-0 win over Lamar in front a home-opening crowd of 25,803 at Cajun Field.

Baer booted four field goals and the four turnovers the defense forced led directly to 16 points for Louisiana (1-0) which remained undefeated at home under head coach Mark Hudspeth and won its home opener for the fifth consecutive season.

The shutout was the first for UL at Cajun Field since 2002 and extended the current win streak at the facility to six games.

Adding four extra points to his four field goal makes, Baer tied the school record for points scored in a game by a kicker with 16. He extended his current string of consecutive makes to 15, breaking the school record of 14 set by Mike Shafer in 1994.

The Cajuns defense limited Lamar (0-1) to just 194 yards total offense, including 28 yards rushing.

Louisiana forced four turnovers as Qyendarius Griffin, Justin Anderson and Rodney Gillis each recovered a fumble and Gillis made the Cajuns' only interception of the game.

The Cajuns scored on their first eight possessions. Gautier threw a two-yard touchdown to Jacob Maxwell in the first quarter and ended the half with a two-yard toss to Javone Lawson to close out the scoring. In between, Alonzo Harris and Effrem Reed each scored on short runs and Baer made field goals from 52, 40, 39 and 32 yards.

With the game well out of reach, the Cajuns coasted in the second half and managed the clock.

GAME 2
Louisiana 37, Troy 24

Sept. 8 Troy, Ala.

TROY, Ala. -- Alonzo Harris rushed for 137 yards and a touchdown and Brett Baer added three field goals as Louisiana upended Troy, 37-24, to end the Trojans 25-game win streak in home openers.

The Cajuns improved to 2-0 for just the second time since 1990.

Troy scored on the first and last possession of each half, but in between, it was all Cajuns.

UL tied the game at 7-7 on a 10-yard run by Blaine Gautier, but the Cajuns lost the senior quarterback for the game on the play. Minutes later, Jemarlous Moten grabbed a fumble and returned it 56-yards to put UL ahead for good, 14-7.

Brett Baer added a pair of 25-yard field goals to extend the lead to 20-7, but the Trojans scored a touchdown just before halftime and later added a field goal to open the second half to pull within 20-17.

The Cajuns would run off 17 straight points to put the game away. Terrance Broadway started the run when he found Harry Peoples on a nine-yard scoring pass with 8:16 left in the third quarter.

Baer made his third field goal of the night, a 32-yarder, to break the Sun Belt record with his 18th consecutive field goal made. Harris pushed the lead to 37-17 with a two-yard touchdown run with 9:14 remaining.

GAME 3
Oklahoma St. 65, Louisiana 24

Sept. 15 Stillwater, Okla.

STILLWATER, Okla. – J.W. Walsh came off the bench to throw for 347 yards and four touchdowns and he rushed for a fifth score as Oklahoma State handed Louisiana its first loss of the season, a 65-24 defeat before a crowd of 56,062 in Boone Pickens Stadium.

Walsh was thrust into the game midway through the first quarter with the game tied, after starter Wes Lunt went down with an apparent ankle injury. Walsh, a redshirt freshman, guided the Cowboys to points on all eight series in the opening two stanzas as Oklahoma State built a 44-0 halftime lead.

The Cajuns played better in the second half, putting up 24 points and totalling 272 yards of total offense.

UL finally got on the scoreboard when Blaine Gautier connected with Darryl Surgent on a 73-yard touchdown to make it 44-7.

After a Cowboy touchdown, UL added a 41-yard field goal by Baer that capped a 51-yard drive and made the score 51-10.

After Walsh threw his fourth TD pass of the game, a 17-yard pass to Stewart, freshman Marcus Jackson scored on a one-yard run on his first collegiate carry.

OSU added a three-yard TD run by Desmond Roland to make it a 65-17 game with 8:58 left before Gautier closed out the scoring with a 10-yard touchdown run with 4:08 left.

GAME 4
Louisiana 48, FIU 20

Sept. 29 Cajun Field

LAFAYETTE, La. – Louisiana built a 24-0 early second quarter lead en route to a 48-20 win over preseason SBC favorite, FIU.

Terrance Broadway delivered another solid relief effort, completing 15-of-19 pass attempts for 228 yards and rushing for a pair of scores.

The Cajuns took control early, scoring the game's first 24 points.

Louisiana opened the scoring on its second possession with Gautier running it in from three yards out at 7:06 of the opening quarter. UL made it 14-0 at the 2:30 mark when Gautier found tight end Jacob Maxwell in the back left corner of the end zone for a two-yard touchdown pass.

Following a Jemarlous Moten interception, Brett Baer connected on a 46-yard field goal to push the lead to 17-0. The series was costly as Gautier left the game with a hand injury.

Broadway took over and the offense didn't skip a beat. He used 13-yard TD run with 11:38 remaining before halftime to push the Cajuns lead to 24-0.

FIU climbed back into the game with a pair of touchdowns, closing to within 24-14 with 5:59 left in the half.

But Broadway scored his second touchdown of the game on a four-yard run on a quarterback option to give UL a 31-14 halftime edge and the Cajuns broke the game open after halftime, scoring 10 straight points to take a 41-14 lead.

Broadway found Harry Peoples open down the left sideline and the senior ran it in for a 78-yard touchdown just 49 seconds into the quarter, effectively putting the game away.

GAME 5
Louisiana 41, Tulane 13

Oct. 6 Cajun Field

LAFAYETTE, La. – UL churned up 294 yards rushing on the way to a dominating 41-13 Homecoming victory over Tulane at Cajun Field.

Louisiana piled up 167 of those rushing yards in the opening half, building a comfortable 24-10 margin at the break.

Alonzo Harris rushed 23 times for 123 yards and a touchdown, giving him his second 100-yard game of the season.

Brett Baer registered double-figure points again. The Cajuns kicker connected on field goals from 46 and 31 yards and added five extra points for 11 points total.

Baer was responsible for the only points of the first quarter, connecting on a 46-yard field goal at the 11:33 mark.

The Cajuns pushed the lead to 10-0 when Broadway connected with Javone Lawson on a 23-yard pass with 12:43 remaining in the second quarter.

Justin Anderson scored one for the defense when he returned an interception 38 yards for the score. Tulane got the TD right back when Justyn Shackleford got behind the Louisiana secondary to catch a 71-yard pass from D.J. Ponder to make it 17-7.

Broadway made it 24-7 when he ran it in from 10 yards out with 1:45 left.

Tulane scored just before the half on a 40-yard field goal by Cairo Santos with nine seconds left.

Broadway found Lawson again to open the second half as Lawson made an acrobatic 20-yard scoring grab at 12:43. Harris then added to the rout, scoring from one-yard out with 4:33 left in the third to push the lead to 38-10.

The teams swapped field goals in the fourth quarter to provide the final margin.

GAME 6
North Texas 30, Louisiana 23

Oct. 16 Denton, Texas

DENTON, Texas – Antoinne Jimmerson scored on a 78-yard screen pass from Derek Thompson with 1:54 left, giving North Texas a 30-23 come-from-behind win over the Cajuns.

The score capped a Mean Green rally from a 20-6 deficit early in the third quarter and came 67 seconds after Brett Baer tied the game at 23-23 on a 47-yard field goal.

UL dominated the first quarter, taking a 6-0 lead on an Effrem Reed 1-yard run, but Baer's extra point attempt was no good.

The Cajuns extended the lead to 13-6 at the half on a 75-yard Terrance Broadway run and then pushed it to 20-6 when Broadway found Harry Peoples on a 10-yard pass with 12:35 left in the third quarter.

UNT battled back to tie the game at 20-20 after three quarters on a 28-yard pass from Thompson to Jimmerson and a 34-yard Brelan Chancelor run.

The Mean Green took their first lead on Zach Olen's third field goal of the game, a 22-yard effort with 11:44 left. He previously connected on kicks from 25 and 24 yards in the first half.

The Cajuns fought back and tied the game with 3:01 left but the tie was short-lived as Jimmerson made his second touchdown catch of the game.

UL had one more chance to tie the game, but on the first play following the ensuing kickoff, Effrem Reed fumbled the ball after a seven-yard catch and Marcus Trice recovered for UNT to secure the win.

GAME 7
Arkansas State 50, Louisiana 27

Oct. 23 Cajun Field

LAFAYETTE, La. – Brian Davis kicked five field goals, Arkansas State amassed 526 yards of total offense and the Ragin' Cajuns football team had an uncharacteristic five turnovers as the Red Wolves ended UL's eight-game home win streak with a 50-27 decision in front of 19,873 fans at Cajun Field.

ASU also snapped an eight-game losing streak at Cajun Field. It was the Red Wolves' first win at the facility since Nov. 21, 1992 (ASU won 20-7).

The Ragin' Cajuns were forced to play "catch up" the entire night as the Red Wolves rolled out to a 20-0 lead only 15:51 into the contest.

When Terrance Broadway connected with Darryl Surgent on a 25-yard touchdown pass at the 12:16 mark of the third quarter, Louisiana had cut the ASU lead to 26-14.

ASU scored two possessions later to extend the lead back to 19 points, then took advantage of Cajuns turnovers on back-to-back possessions to extend the lead to 43-14 and put the contest out of reach.

Surgent's 107 yards receiving marked the third-highest output for him and most since piling up 109 yards receiving against North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011 at Cajun Field.

GAME 8
Louisiana 40, ULM 24

Nov. 3 Monroe, La.

MONROE, La. – Terrance Broadway accounted for a career-high 460 yards of total offense and five touchdowns as Louisiana routed ULM, 40-24

It was the sixth straight win over the Warhawks for Louisiana with the Cajuns improving to 25-23 in the all-time series.

Running the offense like a veteran, Broadway engineered six scoring drives of 75 yards or more to secure the win. Louisiana had a two-to-one domination in time of possession, having the ball for 40:35 compared to just 19:25 for ULM. It was even more lopsided in the second half as the Cajuns had the ball for 23:03 to just 6:57.

Broadway completed 23-of-32 passes for 373 yards and four touchdowns. He finished one yard shy of equaling his career high for passing yards (374 vs. Arkansas State on Oct. 23). Broadway also carried 14 times for 87 yards and a score.

The Ragin' Cajuns offense dominated the ball all night, running 81 plays and piling up a season-high 607 yards of total offense.

The Cajuns gained 234 yards rushing with Broadway and freshman Torrey Pierce (13 carries, 72 yards) each recording career highs while Alonzo Harris was a workhorse, picking up 61 yards on 17 attempts with a touchdown.

Jamal Robinson led the receivers, making three catches for a career-high 153 yards and two touchdowns, including a 52-yard touchdown in the first quarter and a 81-yard grab on a fourth-and-five play as time expired.

GAME 9
Florida 27, Louisiana 20

Nov. 10 Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. – Jelani Jenkins scored the game-winning touchdown off a 36-yard blocked punt return with two seconds left to allow No. 6 Florida to escape with a 27-20 win over Louisiana in front of a crowd of 86,482 at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.

Jenkins' defensive score capped off a string of 14 straight Gators points in the final 1:42 that took the upset victory and potential first win over an SEC program away from Louisiana which led 20-13 for the majority of the fourth quarter.

After Florida took a 13-3 lead on the second of two Caleb Sturgis field goals with 12:43 left in the third quarter, the Cajuns ran off 17 straight points, including a 22-yard return by Blake Comminie of a blocked punt by Bradley Brown, to open up the 20-13 lead.

Just when Florida seemed out of it, reserve quarterback Jacoby Brissett, who took over for an injured Jeff Driskel in the third quarter, heaved a third-down pass 39 yards to tight end Jordan Reed to set up the Gators first-and-goal as the clock dipped under two minutes.

On the very next play, Brissett completed a three-yard touchdown pass to Quinton Dunbar with 1:42 left to tie the game at 20-20.

The Ragin' Cajuns opted to play for overtime, but Brett Baer's punt was blocked by Loucheiz Purifoy and returned by Jenkins for the game-winning score.

Louisiana's defense out-performed Florida's, posting 7.0 tackles-for-loss (five sacks included) compared to just 4.0 TFL's for the vaunted Gators unit.

Harry Peoples caught 10 passes for 73 yards and rushed three times for 22 yards to lead the UL offense.

GAME 10
Louisiana 31, WKU 27

Nov. 17 Cajun Field

LAFAYETTE, La. – Terrance Broadway accounted for a 403 yards of total offense, including the game-winning 14-yard touchdown run with 38 seconds left, as Louisiana rallied from a 10-point fourth quarter deficit to claim a 31-27 win over WKU.

With the win, the Cajuns became bowl eligible for the second straight season, improving to 6-4 on the year and 4-2 in Sun Belt action. WKU dropped its third straight game to slip to 6-5 overall and 3-4 in league play.

The Cajuns found themselves behind the eight ball after Antonio Andrews scored his second fourth quarter touchdown with 6:00 left to give the Hilltoppers a 27-17 lead. Andrews rushed 37 times for 238 yards for his second 200-yard game of the year.

Louisiana would come back with Broadway finding Jamal Robinson on a five-yard touchdown pass with 2:43 left to close to within 27-24.

After a failed onside kick attempt, the Cajuns defense held WKU, forcing them to punt with UL taking over at their own 7 with 1:32 play.

Broadway hooked up with Harry Peoples four times for 49 yards on the drive and then ran it in for the final 14 yards with 38 seconds left to give the Cajuns the lead.

After a scoreless first quarter, WKU took a 7-0 lead on a KeShawn Simpson one-yard run. Louisiana answered with an 18-yard touchdown run by Torrey Pierce.

The teams traded field goals and were tied, 10-10, at half. The Cajuns took a 17-13 lead on a 15-yard run by Pierce with 2:51 left in the third quarter.

GAME 11

Louisiana 52, South Alabama 30

Nov. 24 Cajun Field

LAFAYETTE, La. – Louisiana scored 21 points covering a seven-minute span around halftime to turn a one-point game into a rout, running away with a 52-30 win over South Alabama.

After South Alabama had closed to within 17-16 on three straight field goals by Michel Chapusseaux, the Cajuns poured it on. Javone Lawson caught a 27-yard touchdown pass from Terrance Broadway with 16 seconds left in the half.

Effrem Reed followed with his second touchdown of the day, a one-yard run, on the first drive of the second half and Broadway finished the run with a six-yard TD run of his own to make it a 38-16 game.

Broadway completed 11-of-19 passes for 305 yards, including a 75-yard scoring pass to Harry Peoples in the first quarter. Peoples finished with five catches for 166 yards.

Blaine Guatier, who missed the previous six games with a broken throwing hand, relieved Broadway in the fourth quarter and threw an 18-yard scoring strike to Jacob Maxwell to make it a 45-23 contest.

Yobes Walker closed out the Senior Night scoring with a one-yard TD run in the fourth quarter.

The Cajuns celebrated after the game, accepting a bid to play in the New Orleans Bowl on Dec. 22.

2012 R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl

Louisiana 43, East Carolina 34

Dec. 22 New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Terrance Broadway accounted for 424 yards of total offense as Louisiana repeated as R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl champions with a 43-34 victory over East Carolina before a bowl record crowd of 48,828 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Broadway, who completed 21-of-32 passes for 316 yards and a touchdown and had 15 rushes for 108 yards, was named New Orleans Bowl MVP.

The Cajuns jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter when Broadway and Harry Peoples scored on runs of 12 and 10 yards, respectively.

ECU answered with the first of two Reggie Bullock TD runs, a five-yard scamper at the 12:48 mark.

Alonzo Harris scored on touchdown runs of six and 68 yards to extend the lead to 28-7 with 7:05 left.

A pair of ECU touchdowns just 13 seconds apart closed the gap to 28-21 before Baer closed the half with a 50-yard field goal as time expired.

The Pirates ran off 10 straight points to tie the game in the third quarter, the last seven coming on a 13-yard run by Bullock with 5:57 left.

The Cajuns answered quickly as Javone Lawson made an acrobatic grab of a 14-yard pass from Broadway with 3:07 left. Baer's extra-point was blocked as Louisiana led, 37-31.

ECU closed to within 37-34 on Warren Harvey's second field goal of the day, a 26-yard effort with 13:36 left, but the Cajuns defense stiffened, holding the Pirates scoreless in their final three possessions to secure the win.

Brian Mitchell was the first player in NCAA history with 5,000 yards passing and 3,000 yards rushing in a career. Tyrell Fenroy is the only non-QB among the Cajuns leaders in total offense. He became just the 7th player in NCAA history with four consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons en route to a career total of 4,646 rushing yards. Jerry Babb and Jake Delhomme are the only players to lead the Cajuns in total offense four consecutive seasons.

In 2003, UL became the first school in NCAA history to score two TD's in one season on blocked field goal returns. Britt Jackson's 30-yard interception return for a TD with 6:30 left in the game helped the Cajuns upset #25 Texas A&M on Sept. 14, 1996 by a final score of 29-22. The defense had four INT's and recovered four fumbles that day. Thomas King attempted the first defensive extra point return in NCAA history (6 yards on 9/3/88).

Earlier in the season at South Carolina, Michael Adams' blocked field goal was returned 89 yards for a touchdown by UL's Pat Lamy. It was the first time in NCAA history that a team has returned two blocked field goals for touchdowns in the same season.

November 15, 2003
In one of the most thrilling games in school history, UL downs Middle Tennessee in a 57-51 four-overtime contest. Fred Stamps records a career-high 13 receptions for 201 yards - extending his school-record reception streak to 44 games. Freshman Jerry Babb goes 37-of-56 for a career-best 435 yards and five TDs (4 pass / 1 rush).

November 5, 2004
The Cajuns play North Texas in a Friday night game nationally televised to 86 million homes via ESPN2. The game is viewed in Iraq by troops serving in the U.S. armed forces.

November 26, 2005
A 54-21 thrashing of ULM gives the Cajuns a share of the Sun Belt Conference title. True freshman Tyrell Fenroy runs for 164 yards and three TD's. Fenroy becomes the first Cajuns running back to rush for 1,000 yards - finishing the season with 1,053 yards and 12 scores. Louisiana loses the Sun Belt tie-breaker and watches Arkansas State play at Cajun Field in the New Orleans Bowl at Lafayette.

October 4, 2008
Tyrell Fenroy rattles off a school record 297 yards rushing on just 20 carries at ULM. He appears to score his fourth TD and top 300 yards with less than one minute remaining, but the run is called back on a holding penalty. Fenroy doesn't get another carry as the Cajuns run out the clock. He is awarded National Offensive Player of the Week honors.

October 11, 2008
Jason Chery touches the ball seven times in the first half at North Texas and gains 335 all-purpose yards, scoring five touchdowns. He scores on an 81-yard run, receptions of 17, 49 and 57 yards and has a 97-yard kickoff return for a TD.

November 1, 2008
In the 1,000th game in school history, Tyrell Fenroy becomes the seventh player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard rushing seasons, joining Tony Dorsett, Amos Lawrence, Denvis Manns, Ron Dayne, Cedric Benson and DonTrell Moore. Fenroy has already become the school and Sun Belt all-time leader in rushing yards and soon becomes the State of Louisiana career leader.

December 3, 2008
Michael Desormeaux gains 42 yards rushing to finish the season with 1,035 yards and become just the eighth QB in NCAA history with back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons.

December 9, 2008
Tyrell Fenroy and Michael Desormeaux are named Sun Belt Player of the Year and Offensive POY, respectively, after leading the Cajuns to new school single-season records in total yards (5,390) and touchdowns (54).

September 5, 2009
A new attendance record is set, as 41,357 fans "sell-out" Cajun Field. The Southern band plays a tribute to the late Michael Jackson and the Cajuns beat the Jaguars 42-19.

September 12, 2009
The Big XII's Kansas State comes to Cajun Field and is upset by the Cajuns 17-15. Tyler Albrecht nails his first career field goal attempt (48 yards with 32 seconds left).

November 5, 2011
The Cajuns score two touchdowns in the final 3:08 to erase an 11-point deficit and defeat ULM 36-35 to secure a perfect 5-0 mark at Cajun Field, marking the first undefeated season at home since 1987 (5-0). The win also locks up the first eight-win season for UL since 1993.

November 21, 2011
The moment Cajuns fans had been waiting for finally arrived. On Monday, Nov. 21, 2011, the Ragin' Cajuns accepted a bid to the R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl marking the school's first bowl appearance since 1970.

December 17, 2011

1 • Brian Mitchell

Quarterback (1986-89)

Brian Mitchell led the Cajuns to four straight winning seasons, becoming the first player in NCAA history to pass for more than 5,000 yards and rush for more than 3,000 yards in a career. He also left UL as the NCAA record holder for most rushing touchdowns in a career by a quarterback with 47.

Mitchell was picked by the Washington Redskins in the fifth round of the 1990 NFL Draft and was a member of the Redskins' Super Bowl XXVI championship team. He spent 10 seasons in Washington, earning Pro Bowl honors in 1996, before playing three seasons with Philadelphia and one with the New York Giants. Mitchell retired as the NFL career leader in combined yards with 23,330. He is still the league's all-time leader in career kick returns (607), kick return yards (14,014), punt returns (463), punt return yards (4,999) and return TD (13). Mitchell was inducted into the Redskins Ring of Fame in October 2009.

9 • Damon Mason

Defensive Back (1994-96)

Damon Mason posted 135 tackles as a senior, putting him atop Louisiana's all-time list for tackles in a season by a defensive back. It was also the third-highest, single-season total for any Cajuns defender.

He was honored as a national Defensive Player of the Week and was featured in Sports Illustrated after posting two interceptions, one for a TD, to go along with two forced fumbles, one sack and a team-best nine tackles in the Ragin' Cajuns 29-22 upset over nationally-ranked Texas A&M in 1996.

He was a first team All-Big West Conference selection in 1995.

Mason signed a free agent contract with the Orlando Predators of the Arena Football League in November 1997. He completed his 12th season in the league during the 2010 season, competing as a defensive specialist for Orlando. In June 2011 his arena career continued when he signed with the New Orleans Voodoo. Mason's tour of duty in the AFL also includes stops with Orlando, New Jersey, Las Vegas, Carolina, Grand Rapids and Austin. Mason is the all-time leading tackler in AFL history.

12 • Jake Delhomme

Quarterback (1993-96)

Jake Delhomme, who led the Carolina Panthers to Super Bowl XXXVIII in Houston in 2004, left an indelible mark during his four-year career at Louisiana, especially on the field and in the record books.

Delhomme started 43 consecutive games at quarterback. He ranks atop all of the Cajuns passing charts and is listed in the NCAA record books alongside some of college football's best quarterbacks.

He led the Cajuns to three consecutive winning seasons and a pair of Big West Conference championships in 1993 and 1994. He also quarterbacked the Cajuns to arguably the biggest win in school history over nationally-ranked Texas A&M.

Delhomme signed as a free agent out of college with the New Orleans Saints, then with the Carolina Panthers as a free agent in 2003.

In seven seasons with the Panthers, Delhomme completed 1,580 passes for 19,258 yards and 120 TDs. In 2004, he had career-bests for completions (310), passing yards (3,886) and TDs (29). Delhomme was selected to the 2006 Pro Bowl.

He left Carolina following the 2009 season as the franchise's career leader in passing attempts, completions, yards, touchdowns and 300-yard games. Delhomme signed as a free agent with the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He is presently on the Houston Texans roster, signing with the franchise on November 29, 2011.

14 • Brandon Stokley

Wide Receiver (1995-98)

Brandon Stokley became the first player in NCAA Division I-A history to average more than 100 yards receiving per game over a four-year career. He was the most prolific freshman receiver in the history of college football, catching 75 passes for 1,121 yards in 1995.

Stokley still owns the three best receiving seasons in Cajuns history.

He was drafted by the Baltimore Ravens in the fourth round of the 1999 NFL Draft and was a member of the Super Bowl XXXV championship team.

Stokley signed with Indianapolis in 2003 and was a member of the Colts Super Bowl XLI championship team. In 2004, he had 68 receptions for 1,077 yards and 10 TDs, catching Peyton Manning's then-record 49th touchdown pass of the season. In 12-plus NFL seasons, the son of former head coach Nelson Stokley has caught 339 passes for 4,680 yards and 34 TDs.

28 • Glenn LaFleur

Running Back/Linebacker (1967-69)
Second Team Little All-American (1967)
First Team Little All-American (1968)

Glenn LaFleur was the first Ragin' Cajuns football player in Louisiana history to have his jersey retired.

He was a three-year starter at linebacker who earned All-Gulf South Conference honors for three consecutive seasons and was honored as a second-team Little All-American following his junior season.

He capped off his collegiate career by being named first-team Little All-American. LaFleur was a brave player who battled through injuries for much of his career.

32 • Tyrell Fenroy

Running Back (2005-08)
Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year (2008)

Tyrell Fenroy, who had one of the most prolific careers by a running back in NCAA history, saw his number retired during a pre-game ceremony at his final college game. He was a four-time All-Sun Belt selection, 2005 SBC Freshman of the Year and 2008 SBC Player of the Year.

Fenroy became only the seventh player in NCAA history with four 1,000-yard rushing seasons and shattered the UL and Sun Belt records for career rushing yards and career rushing touchdowns. As a senior, Fenroy was one of 10 semifinalists for the prestigious Doak Walker Award.

He was the nation's active career rushing leader and set the all-time career rushing record in the State of Louisiana en route to being named 2008 Louisiana Sportswriters Offensive Player of the Year.

42 • Orlando Thomas

Defensive Back (1991-94)
Second Team UPI All-American (1993)
Third Team AP All-American (1993)

Orlando Thomas was an All-American performer who led the nation in interceptions during his junior season in 1993. He was selected as a second team All-American by UPI and a third team selection by the Associated Press.

He finished second on the Cajuns all-time career tackle list with 347 stops and ranks first among all Cajuns defensive backs. His 18 career interceptions rank third in school history.

Thomas was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the second round of the 1995 NFL Draft. Thomas spent seven seasons with the Vikings, amassing 473 career tackles and 22 interceptions in 98 games before retiring following the 2001 season.

DID YOU KNEAUX?

On August 1, 1973 the NCAA's membership was divided into three legislative and competitive divisions at the first special convention ever held. All major schools were reclassified as Division I and other schools were divided into Division II and Division III.

In 1978, Division I members voted to create sub classifications I-A, I-AA, and I-AAA for the sport of football. When I-AA was formed in 1978, the playoffs comprised just four teams, doubling to eight teams in 1981. The following year (1982) it was changed to a 12-team playoff, with each of the top four seeds receiving a first-round bye and a home game in the quarterfinals.

After the 1981 season, 40 schools left I-A, with 37 moving to I-AA and 3 moving to I-AAA (dropping football). At this time, UL chose to leave the Southland Conference and become independent in order to remain classified as a I-A institution.

In August 2006, the NCAA voted to rename I-A and I-AA to the Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision, respectively.

Louisiana is one of 91 NCAA Division I schools that has been a member of the NCAA's Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I-A) since its inception prior to the 1978 season. In fact, Louisiana is the only Sun Belt Conference football member that has been a FBS member every season since 1978. Louisiana has never been a member of the NCAA's Football Championship Subdivision (formerly known as Division I-AA).

Below is a list of all 91 Division I programs that have been members of the FBS since 1978:

1944 Oil Bowl
Louisiana 24, Arkansas A&M 7

Jan. 1, 1944 Houston, Texas

HOUSTON — What many consider to be "The Best Team in Louisiana History", Louisiana (then known as Southwestern Louisiana Institute) defeated Arkansas A&M (the present-day University of Arkansas at Monticello) 24-7 to claim the 1944 Oil Bowl Championship.

The New Year's Day rematch was played under the same rainy, muddy and foggy conditions as the earlier meeting between the two teams on Nov. 6 in Memphis, Tenn. That game ended in a 20-20 tie.

The Cajuns versatile backs and strong offensive line was no match for the Aggies.

"I say that no team, and I put the emphasis on Notre Dame, could have beaten us that day," said Louisiana-Lafayette head coach Louis Whitman.

Louisiana-Lafayette was led by quarterback Alvin Dark, who either scored or set-up each of the Cajuns tallies.

The Cajuns struck in the first quarter when Dark returned an Aggies punt 24 yards down to the AAM 21 yard-line. Following an offsides penalty and a first down run by Dark, Dark then split the uprights from 16 yards to give the Cajuns a 3-0 lead.

Louisiana-Lafayette upped their lead to 10-0 just two possessions later. Moe Richmond made a sensational leaping catch between two defenders for a 12-yard score from Dark.

Arkansas A&M moved down to the Cajuns 19 on the next possession, but came away empty handed. AAM's quarterback needed just two completions to move the Aggies 51 yards, but then threw three consecutive incompletions to turn the ball back over to Louisiana-Lafayette.

The Aggies scored on their first possession of the second half to cut the Cajuns lead to 10-7. A running into the kicker penalty on the Cajuns helped extend the AAM 64-yard drive that ended in a 27 yard touchdown pass from Gray to Bill Coomer.

1970 Grantland Rice Bowl
Tennessee St. 26, Louisiana 25

Dec. 12, 1970 Baton Rouge, La.

BATON ROUGE, La. — The Ragin' Cajuns, appearing in their second bowl in school history, fell victim to turnovers and special teams miscues en route to a 26-25 loss to the Tennessee State University Tigers.

Tennessee State scored two touchdowns in 1:28 to take a 14-0 lead after one quarter.

Louisiana responded with two touchdowns in the second quarter. Nelson Schexnayder hauled in a seven-yard touchdown pass from George Coussan, but Roy Pendergraft's extra point was blocked. Robert Gill scored on a four yard run just 3:46 later, but Coussan's pass to Dickie Haik was broken-up, and the Cajuns trailed 14-12 at the half.

A scoreless third quarter led to a frenzy of activity in the fourth stanza.

Schexnayder caught his second touchdown of the game on a 17-yard toss from Coussan with 8:57 remaining in the game. Pendergraft's extra point gave the Cajuns a 19-14 lead.

The ensuing kickoff was fumbled by J. Thaxton into the end zone where Mike Courville recovered for a Cajuns touchdown. Pendergraft's extra point was blocked again, giving Louisiana a 25-14 lead.

TSU traveled 55 yards on seven plays in 2:45 culminating in a three-yard touchdown scramble by Joe Gilliam. Albert Davis was cut down on the try for two, keeping the score 25-20 in favor of the Cajuns.

Coussan's seventh interception of the game led to a short touchdown run by Davis with 3:22 remaining in the game.

The Cajuns comeback hopes were dashed when Tom Hauser's pass was intercepted by Donald Pinson, his fifth pick of the game and TSU's eighth.

2011 R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl
Louisiana 32, San Diego State 30

Dec. 17, 2011 New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS, La. — Brett Baer's 50-yard field goal as time expired lifted Louisiana to a 32-30 victory over San Diego State in the 2011 R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl in front of a record 42,841 fans at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Trailing 30-29 with 35 seconds remaining, Blaine Gautier capped off a record-setting performance of 470 yards passing by directing Louisiana (9-4) 49 yards for Baer's game clincher. Starting at the UL 18, Gautier completed back-to-back passes to Javone Lawson that covered 39 yards and moved the Cajuns to the SDSU 43.

Gautier found Harry Peoples on the sideline for five yards to the SDSU 38 to move into the 50-yard field goal range, then a five-yard penalty against the Aztecs (8-5) set up Baer's heroics.

The Aztecs used a 10 play, 69 yard drive capped off by a Ryan Lindley touchdown pass to Colin Lockett to take a 30-29 lead.

Gautier's 470 yards passing established an R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl record. He eclipsed the previous record of 387 passing yards set by Troy's Corey Robinson (vs. Ohio in 2010), giving him 2,958 yards for the year, toppling Jake Delhomme's record of 2901 yards passing in 1996.

Lawson joined Gautier in the history book after posting 193 yards on nine catches to become only the third Cajuns receiver to post 1,000-plus yards in a season.

Aberlardo Perez gave the Aztecs a 3-0 lead after his 27-yard attempt was true at the 9:53 mark in the first quarter.

With 25 seconds left in the first quarter, the Cajuns grabbed a 6-3 advantage on an 18-yard touchdown strike from Gautier to Lawson. The extra point attempt was blocked.

The Cajuns increased their lead to 13-3 on an electrifying 87-yard punt return for touchdown by Darryl Surgent at the 14:00 mark in the second quarter.

UL used a 20-yard TD connection from Gautier to Ladarius Green to take a 19-3 lead at the start of the third quarter.

San Diego State capitalized on a long kick return by Lockett to pull within nine points after a 16-yard touchdown pass from Lindley to Lockett at the 12:54 mark in the third quarter. Lockett and Lindley hooked up for another 16-yard score to pull the Aztecs to within 19-17.

Gautier connected with Lawson for his second TD reception of the contest with an 11-yard TD reception with 12:48 left in the game to extend the Louisiana edge to 26-17.

2012 R&L Carriers New Orleans Bowl
Louisiana 43, East Carolina 34

Dec. 22, 2012 New Orleans, La.

NEW ORLEANS, La. – Terrance Broadway accounted for 424 yards of total offense as Louisiana repeated as R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl champions with a 43-34 victory over East Carolina before a bowl record crowd of 48,828 at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Broadway, who completed 21-of-32 passes for 316 yards and a touchdown and had 15 rushes for 108 yards, was named New Orleans Bowl MVP.

The Cajuns jumped out to a 14-0 lead early in the second quarter when Broadway and Harry Peoples scored on runs of 12 and 10 yards, respectively.

ECU answered with the first of two Reggie Bullock TD runs, a five-yard scamper at the 12:48 mark.

Alonzo Harris scored on touchdown runs of six and 68 yards to extend the lead to 28-7 with 7:05 left.

A pair of ECU touchdowns just 13 seconds apart closed the gap to 28-21 before Baer closed the half with a 50-yard field goal as time expired.

The Pirates ran off 10 straight points to tie the game in the third quarter, the last seven coming on a 13-yard run by Bullock with 5:57 left.

The Cajuns answered quickly as Javone Lawson made an acrobatic grab of a 14-yard pass from Broadway with 3:07 left. Baer's extra-point was blocked as Louisiana led, 37-31.

ECU closed to within 37-34 on Warren Harvey's second field goal of the day, a 26-yard effort with 13:36 left, but the Cajuns defense stiffened, holding the Pirates scoreless in their final three possessions to secure the win.

Cajun Field has served as the home of Ragin' Cajuns football since September 1971 with Louisiana holding a 119-99-2 all-time record in it with winning records in 29 of the 42 seasons.

The Cajuns have gone 10-1 at home over the last two years, including a 5-0 mark in 2011 when they set the Louisiana single season records for total attendance (145,854) and average attendance (29,171). Included in those totals were five of the top 15 crowds all-time, including a Sun Belt Conference record 32,823 vs. North Texas on Oct. 15, 2011.

Cajun Field hosted the 1,000th Cajuns game in school history on Nov. 1, 2008 before a then-Sun Belt record crowd of 29,031.

Louisiana was the Sun Belt attendance champion in 2004, 2008 and 2011.

Louisiana has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971.

The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a then- record crowd of 38,783 fans.

That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

"The Swamp" has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of two undefeated seasons at "The Swamp."

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and bleacher seating to the capacity of another 28,423, giving "The Swamp" a seating capacity of 31,000. General admission seating on the hills in both end zones give fans the opportunity to overflow the stadium.

Cajun Field was built in time for the 1971 football season. The characteristics which helped create the name and traditions have been there since the initial construction.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp".

The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl. In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

"The Swamp" nickname also fits in with the geographic makeup of the area, with its many surrounding bayous and wetlands, as well as the close proximity to the Gulf of Mexico, which lies just 30 miles south.

In fact, a popular gathering place for Louisiana students and a regular stop for visitors is the small swamp located in the heart of Louisiana's main campus, which sits adjacent to the Student Union. Ironically, the on-campus swamp, officially named Cypress Lake, lays over the original football field that existed during the early 1900's, adding to the distinct nickname.

The National Wetlands Center, a nationally renown research facility that Louisiana hosts and administers, is located less than a half-mile from Cajun Field.

In the summer of 2008, Cajun Field removed its long-standing natural grass and entered a new era with a synthetic playing surface.

Jeremie Jones

The 2013 Louisiana football media guide was prepared by the staff of the Louisiana Ragin' Cajuns Sports Information Department to assist the news media in its coverage of its athletic programs. Requests for additional information should be made to the sports information office.

Head Coach Mark Hudspeth

■ Head coach Mark Hudspeth will be available for interviews on Monday during the Sun Belt Coaches Teleconference (10:50 a.m. CDT) and at his weekly media luncheon. He is also available for telephone and in-person interviews in the mornings early in the week by appointment only. Please make requests to Sports Information Director Brian McCann at least 24 hours in advance.

Player Availability

■ Player interviews MUST be arranged through the SID office. During the season, Cajuns players are available to the media twice a week, typically Tuesdays & Wednesdays. To arrange an interview, please call or email Brian McCann at least 48 hours in advance. Post-practice interview requests for coaches & players must be made 24 hours in advance. Those interviews will be conducted either on the practice field or in the Sports Information Office in the Cox Communications Athletic Center. Players will not be available for game-day interviews until the post-game press conference. Interviews will always be scheduled around a student-athlete's academic schedule. NOTE: First-year freshmen are unavailable for interviews after media day (Aug. 5) for the duration of the fall schedule.

■ MEDIA MEMBERS SHOULD NEVER CONTACT STUDENT-ATHLETES DIRECTLY AT ANY TIME. Student-athletes have been instructed to immediately terminate any contact initiated by a member of the media.

Practices

■ Practices are closed to the media, but may be open at any time upon announcement. Media should contact the SID office if they plan to attend an open practice and should be aware of the designated areas around the practice field from which to view practice.

■ Video crews shooting footage during practice, though, are asked to limit their filming to the final 30 minutes.

■ When practice is over, media members are asked to move to the area just inside the entrance gates to the practice field to conduct interviews.

2013 Football Student-Athlete Availability

Sunday: Practice Closed - No coach or player interviews
Monday: Players Day Off (except those attending the Media Luncheon), coaches available by appointment
Tuesday: Practice Closed. Interviews after practice
Wednesday: Practice Closed. Interviews after practice
Thursday: Practice Closed. Interviews after practice
Friday: Walk-through closed - No interviews
Saturday: Post-Game only
(All availability subject to change at any time without prior notice)

Injury Information

■ The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) regulates the use and disclosure of certain information held by "covered entities". It establishes regulations for the use and disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI). PHI is any information held by a covered entity which concerns health status and provision of health care that can be linked to an individual.

■ Under the HIPAA Privacy Rule, the University must reasonably limit uses and disclosures of medical information to the minimum necessary to accomplish their intended purpose. In order to supply the media with injury information related to student-athletes, the University shall be limited to discussing the athlete's name, along with a broad term for the injury and upcoming playing status.

■ Student-athletes who miss practice due to an injury will not be available for post-practice interviews.

■ Student-athletes who are injured during a game will not be allowed to participate in post-game media interviews.

■ Members of the media should never approach athletic trainers to discuss the injury of a student-athlete.

CREDENTIAL POLICY

CREDENTIAL & PARKING POLICIES AND GUIDELINES

Credentials, parking passes and working space for all media members are issued at the sole and exclusive discretion of the Louisiana SID office.

Media must request credentials in writing through SID Brian McCann at bjm5269@louisiana.edu no later than 10 days prior to the game. All season credential requests must be made at least three weeks prior to the season.

ANY ATTEMPT TO REPLICATE A PARKING PASS OR CREDENTIAL FOR THE INTENT OF DISTRIBUTION WILL RESULT IN A PERMANENT LOSS OF PRIVILEGES.

Requests from individuals not employed by a legitimate media outlet WILL NOT be considered.

Working Credentials

■ With the exception of those covering the Ragin' Cajuns daily, all passes are issued on a game-by-game basis with consideration of available working space.

■ Louisiana reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual.

■ Requests will be honored from sports editors of daily newspapers and sports directors of TV and radio stations.

■ Time permitting, credentials will be mailed. However, in the event that credentials cannot be mailed, they can be picked up at Media Will Call which is located at Gate B at the base of the Cajun Field elevator tower. During the week, credentials may be picked up in the SID Office located in Room 140 of the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

■ Credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation at any time, if transferred.

■ Only websites that are affiliated with a national or regional news media organization (CNN/SI, ESPN, etc.) or an opposing institution will be considered for credentials.

■ Web sites that sponsor "message boards" or "chat rooms" where people are allowed to post anonymously are ineligible for credentials and access to media functions.

■ If a news-gathering medium has an on-line site that sponsors these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for on-line staff. ALL passes can be revoked if the traditional medium fails to monitor its anonymous forum for malicious defamation against the University and its' coaches, student-athletes and administrators.

■ All media members are asked to enter the stadium through the media gate located adjacent to Gate B at the base of the Cajun Field elevator tower.

Media Parking

■ Media parking at Cajun Field is available on a limited basis in a designated lot. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the SID office. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided to all media. Passes must be displayed in the front windshield at all times.

Game Notes

■ During the season, football game notes will be available on Mondays at 12 noon to media members and will also be available at www.ragincajuns.com.

■ If media require additional notes, statistics or information not listed in the game notes package, please contact the SID office with your needs. Please allow time for the SID staff to research your questions.

Working Press Area

■ The entrance to the Cajun Field press box is through the press elevator, located at Gate B adjacent to the elevator tower on the west side of Cajun Field.

■ The press box opens approximately three hours prior to game time and meals will be served in the press box beginning approximately 90 minutes before kickoff.

■ Working media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

■ The Level 1 area is reserved for media members as well as game staff and statistical personnel. Broadcast outlets, coaches booths and game management areas are located on Level 2. The camera deck is below Level 1.

FOOTBALL WEEKLY MEDIA LUNCHEON

Each week during the regular season, Mark Hudspeth will hold a weekly media luncheon beginning at noon in Room 140 of the Cox Communications Athletic Center. Luncheons are ONLY open to credentialed members of the media.

Lunch will be served at 12:00 noon with interviews starting at 12:30 p.m. Schedule permitting, student-athletes may be available to address the media during this time (if there are not class conflicts) . Media members are asked to arrive early.

The 2013 luncheon schedule is:

Wednesday, Aug. 14
Monday, Aug. 26
Tuesday, Sept. 3
Monday, Sept. 9
Monday, Sept. 16
Monday, Sept. 23

Monday, Oct. 7
Thursday, Oct. 17
Monday, Oct. 28
Monday, Nov. 4
Monday, Nov. 11
Monday, Nov. 25
Monday, Dec. 2

Press Box Media Services

■ Pre-game notes, programs, guides and statistics along with other information will be provided to all media members prior to kickoff. Play-by-play and stat sheets are provided at the end of each quarter. Live running stats are also available via monitors throughout press row and on the internet at www.ragincajuns.com during the game.

■ Members of the Louisiana SID staff will man the press box phone number, (337) 851-2255, which should be used for any questions or information needed during the game.

■ Louisiana and the Football Writer's Association of America (FWAA) remind you that the Cajun Field press box is a working press facility and that cheering for either team will not be tolerated. Violators will be asked to leave by security personnel.

Steve Peloquin (left) and Jay Walker (right) return for their 11th season together on the Ragin' Cajuns Radio Network and they will be joined this year by new color analyst Gerald Broussard. Walker has been the play-by-play voice since 1991 while Peloquin moves to the sideline reporter this year after serving as analyst since 2002.

Post-Game

■ The Louisiana locker room is CLOSED to the media at all times. Media outlets may request players to be brought to the interview room for post-game interviews.

■ Requested Cajuns players and head coach Mark Hudsepth are available in the interview room following the mandatory 10-minute cooling-off period. The interview room is located in one of the buildings off the Bob Fournet Recruiting Zone behind the Cox Communications Athletic Center

■ The Cajun Field elevator will be held for working press midway through the fourth quarter and will promptly leave with 5:00 left on the clock to take media members to the post-game interview area. Members of the UL Sports Information staff will escort media to the interview room (located in the auxiliary building behind the Cox Communications Athletic Center) and will be available to handle requests.

Post-game Media Services

■ Game books and Louisiana player and coach quotes will be distributed in the media work room. The Sports Information Office serves as the media work room (Cox Communications Athletic Center, Room 140). All media members are asked to complete their game stories in the media work room.

■ Louisiana will provide complimentary fax/email service for media by request only. Should you need information faxed or emailed, please contact a member of the Louisiana SID staff.

Credential Priority

Credentials are issued based on the following priorities and guidelines:

1. Personnel involved in a live radio or TV broadcast.
2. Daily newspapers and media outlets regularly covering Louisiana and the current opponent. Wire services, regional and national publications are also afforded this opportunity.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on the game. Only local radio and TV stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular sports show will receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized UL or opponent student publications or electronic media outlets.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications covering the game.

NOTE: Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 18 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.

CREDENTIALS MUST BE VISIBLE AT ALL TIMES.

Sideline & Action Photography

■ The sidelines at Cajun Field are an extension of the press box and are limited to working personnel only. NCAA guidelines are enforced, with photographers not allowed to shoot within the confines of the 23-yard-lines on either side of the field. Credentials are required on the sidelines. Photographers and videographers who attempt to shoot in the team area will be removed from the sidelines and may have their credential privileges revoked.

■ It is against NCAA and University rules to sell any image taken at a practice or during a game, especially, but not limited to, current student-athletes.

■ The photo deck is located below the Cajun Field press box and is accessible through the working press area. All team film and television taping should be done from this area. Credentials are required for this area.

Television

■ Television rights are retained by the Louisiana Athletics Department and any station desiring to originate either live or delayed broadcasts must contact Scott Farmer, Director of Athletics at (337) 482-5393.

Visiting Radio

■ Radio rights for Louisiana football are owned by the university and have been assigned to KPEL Radio. Stations wishing to receive their broadcast or needing more information about the network may contact Jay Walker at (337) 233-6000 or by e-mail at jay@espn1420.com.

■ Radio booths are located on the second level of the press box. The visiting radio booth is located adjacent to the public address booth. Look for signs marked "PA / Visiting Radio".

■ Other visiting stations desiring to originate broadcasts must get approval from UL SID Brian McCann before any arrangements will be made or credentials are issued.
