MARTIN HALL

University of Louisiana's Martin Hall (main photo), built in 1963, is the administrative center of campus. It houses the president's office, academic and personnel deans, the registrar and business and purchasing offices. Located in the heart of campus is Cypress Lake (top inset), which is the only on-campus freshwater swamp in the nation. The majority of UL's 137-acre main campus is adorned by oak trees (left inset).

CAMPUS LIFE

The University of Louisiana, also known in French as Université des Acadiens (The University of the Acadians), is a coeducational public research university with high research activity located in Lafayette, La. It is the largest institution within the eight-campus University of Louisiana system and is the second largest university in Louisiana.

For more than 100 years, the University has enjoyed a proud tradition of preparing students for the challenges of life and the ever-changing workplace. Students are taught, mentored and advised by some of the brightest and most accomplished faculty members in the nation.

A variety of learning environments are available, including classrooms, research laboratories, learning communities and actual workplaces.

A wide range of cultural, recreational and social activities are available, both on and off campus. Students can choose from among more than 150 campus organizations and clubs, in addition to other activities offered throughout campus.

Best of all, Louisiana is affordable. With moderate tuition and fees and extremely generous financial aid and scholarship programs, the actual "cost of attendance" is likely to be well below that of other colleges and universities around the country.

The "Walk of Honor," a walkway built with bricks inscribed with the name of every graduate of the University, is a lasting tribute to the more than 100,000 graduates educated at UL in the past 100 years.

UL Basketball: Not just Athletes: STUDENT-ATHLETES

- Danny Cottonham, director of the Student-Athlete Academic Center, has worked at UL for over 30 years and has overseen Academic Support Services for student-athletes for over 25 years
- The men's basketball team has seen a constant improvement in its APR score the past three seasons. The program scored a perfect 1000 in 2006-07 & 2007-08 and 980 in 2008-09. That performance has helped rapidly improve the program's multi-year APR average from 788 following the 2005-06 season to 917 following 2008-09.
- For the last three years, almost half of all student-athletes earned a 3.0 GPA or higher
- On average, the Ragin' Cajuns student-athlete graduation rate is 12-percent better than the University's student body
- The Cajuns Graduation Success Rate stands as one of the highest rates among Division I public schools in the state of Louisiana

WELCOME TO THE CAJUNDOME

THE HOME OF RAGIN' CAJUNS BASKETBALL

25th Season • Seating Capacity: 11,550

One of the nation's most impressive facilities and heralded as one of the finest multi-purpose arenas in the country, the Cajundome has served as the home of Louisiana's Ragin' Cajuns men's basketball program since the 1985-86 season.

The $64 million facility was opened and officially dedicated on Nov. 10, 1985, as the new home of the Ragin' Cajuns, replacing Blackham Coliseum (1950-84), and since that time the 'Dome has drawn raves from across the country for its beauty and function.

"This is as fine a facility as you'll find anywhere," basketball analyst Billy Packer said. "You don't need any better than this."

"It's sensational," said former Utah Jazz head coach Frank Layden, whose team played an exhibition in the arena. "It's the best arena I've ever been in. I'd like to take it home with me."

"The Cajundome is a facility that the University of Louisiana, the city of Lafayette and the state of Louisiana should be very proud of," Cajuns head coach Robert Lee said. "It's one of the truly magnificent facilities in the country. I've traveled throughout the country and played in a lot of great coliseums, and the Cajundome is as nice, if not nicer, than any place I've ever been in."

The Cajundome is much more than a basketball arena, though.

It was designed as a true multi-purpose facility, and the 'Dome has hosted such varied events as ice shows, circuses, indoor soccer, conventions, banquets, wrestling and boxing cards, ice hockey, Arena Football, monster truck shows and rodeos. The facility served as home for the Louisiana IceGators of the East Coast Hockey League from the 1995-96 through 2004-05 seasons. For one season, in 2001, the af2's Lafayette Roughnecks called the Cajundome home.

The facility has an adjustable capacity between 4,500 and 13,500. With an average of 140 events per year and 10-15 concerts per year, the arena has hosted top entertainers and shows including The Eagles, Whitney Houston, Rod Stewart, Elton John, Billy Joel, George Strait, Garth Brooks, Eddie Murphy, Backstreet Boys, Disney's World On Ice, WWF, Sesame Street, Clear Channel Motor Sports, Faith Hill, Tim McGraw, NSYNC, Hannah Montana, Taylor Swift and The Professional Bull Riders Adriano Moraes Invitational.

The Cajundome features chairback seating throughout the arena with a capacity of 11,550 for UL basketball and more for events that do not fill the entire floor space. The largest crowd for any single event was the 13,500 fans who attended the Kenny Rogers concert during the facility's first week of operation.

The 'Dome also features 16 plush VIP luxury suites with full view of the arena.

A brand new basketball court was installed in time for the 2007-08 season. More upgrades were installed for the 2008-09 season which included a new scoreboard and sound system.

Three times the arena has served as host of the Sun Belt Conference men's basketball tournament doing so in 1997, 1998 and 2007. The 2007 Sun Belt Tournament added a twist - the men's tournament was joined by the women's tournament, marking the first time the 'Dome hosted the league's women's postseason event.

The city of Lafayette and the State of Louisiana jointly financed and built the Cajundome. The state owns the land on the 'Dome site, located just east of the University of Louisiana's Cox Communications Athletic Center off Congress Street and Cajundome Boulevard.

On April 30, 2002, the facility received a much needed addition with the opening of the brand new $16.7 million convention center located adjacent to the 'Dome on the east side of the building. The convention center offers nearly 100,000 square feet on two levels..

The largest crowd to date for a Ragin' Cajuns basketball game in the facility came on Dec. 16, 1992, when 11,479 fans watched UL defeat Loyola-Marymount 87-73.

During their tenure in the Cajundome, the Ragin' Cajuns have posted a 228-94 record for a .708 winning percentage.

During the 2002-03 season, the Cajuns set a new record for consecutive wins at the 'Dome after an 81-74 win over New Mexico State on Jan. 2, 2003. That win marked the 15th straight at the Cajundome. The streak would eventually reach 21, which ranked as the fifth-longest in the nation at the time, before falling to Western Kentucky on Feb. 26, 2003.

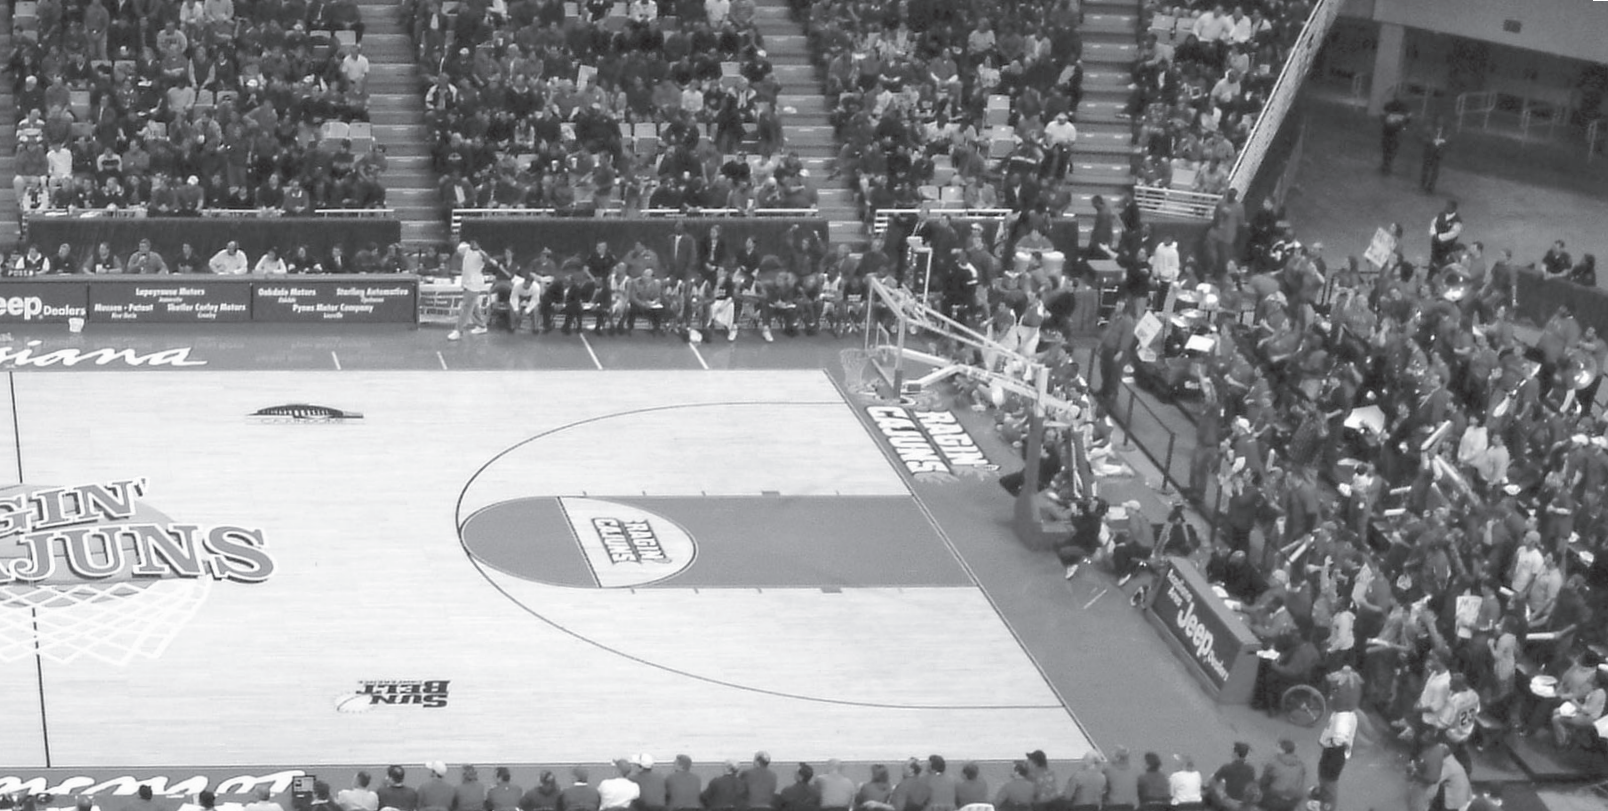

The 2005-06 season was shortened. The Cajundome served as a shelter for Hurricanes Katrina and Rita and was unavailable in November and December 2005. The Cajuns returned to the arena in January 2006.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

- A new era of Ragin' Cajuns facilities was born in August 2007 when the multi-purpose Leon Moncla Indoor Practice Facility was unveiled.
- The 88,791-square foot facility was built by architect Gene Sellers for approximately $4.5 million.
- The facility houses a full 120-yard football field turf surface purchased from the New Orleans Saints that was used during the 2003 NFL season. The turf was also used for the New Orleans Bowl and Sugar Bowl National Championship game.
- Drop-down batting cages hang above the west end zone and are utilized by the baseball, softball and golf teams. Baseball and softball have also used the turf to take infield practice.
- The basketball portion includes a full court with six goals, locker room, video room, players lounge and meeting room. The basketball court was taken from the Cajundome and was replaced by a court used in the NCAA Women's Basketball National Championship game.

Ragin' Cajuns Basketball 09-10 Preview

The old saying is that "familiarity breeds contempt." The 2009-10 version of the Ragin' Cajuns men's basketball team hopes that they can change that to "familiarity breeds WINNING."

Louisiana didn't have to hold an orientation when the team reported for the start of the Fall 2009 semester. Head Coach Robert Lee returned all but two letterwinners from his 2008-09 squad – a total which represents a return of at least 90 percent in every statistical category.

Lee's sixth squad will be a veteran one. There will be a total of 12 upperclassmen.

The main core of the squad – Travis Bureau, Randell Daigle, La'Ryan Gary, Chris Gradnigo and Tyren Johnson – has two years experience working together. UL will have to wait for Gary to fully recover from a knee injury suffered in last season's Sun Belt Tournament.

The squad's top defender, Brandon Dison, is expected to be back.

With an experienced bench added to the mix, this might be the year Louisiana turns the corner and makes a charge for the top of the Sun Belt Conference.

To do so, though, UL will have to stay clear of the problems which plagued the team last season – injuries, inconsistent shooting, rebounding deficiencies and suspect defense.

Expect the offense to be fueled by the "Triple Threat" of Bureau, Daigle and Gradnigo. Each averaged double figures in '08-09 and a repeat performance is not out of the realm of possibility.

The Cajuns will need to identify a "go-to" guy out of the group. Many of the inconsistencies last season evolved from roles changing from game-to-game.

Point guard play and rebounding will be areas the squad needs work. Lee would prefer Daigle be at shooting guard, but neither Ryan McCoy nor Willie Lago took control of the point guard slot in '08-09. Expect freshman Raymone Andrews to challenge for minutes.

Losing Emmanuel Adeife (eligibility exhausted) and Jeremy Barr (transfer) leaves holes in the post. Freshman Javan Mitchell is expected to contribute alongside Courtney Wallace.

UL has the pieces to the puzzle. With good fortune, the 2009-10 season could be special. Remember, just two seasons ago, this same team won the SBC West in their rookie campaign.

Robert Lee returns to the sidelines with Louisiana's Ragin' Cajuns for his sixth season as head coach and 14th season overall in 2009-10.

Having been with the Ragin' Cajuns for such a long period of time, Lee has seen the program through good times and bad times. There have been 20-win seasons that led to conference titles and postseason appearances and then losing seasons which left the program looking for answers.

He has experienced the whole gamut of emotions.

What he has been focused on is making sure that the program is on solid ground both on the court and in the classroom.

The Ragin' Cajuns academic standing was unstable when Lee took over as the top boss in 2004-05 and from day one he has worked toward creating stability and satisfactory results.

Louisiana has seen a constant improvement in its APR score the past two seasons. The program scored a perfect 1,000 in 2006-07 and 2007-08 and registered a 980 in 2008-09. That performance has helped rapidly improve the program's multi-year APR average from 788 following the 2005-06 season to 917 following 2008-09.

The score during the 2008-09 academic year has moved the multi-year APR average above 900 (917 actual) and put UL on pace to move out of the historical penalty structure of APR pending 2009-10 results, completing Lee's mission of solid academic standing.

With a nucleus of players in their third season together – the same group which won the Sun Belt West title in 2007-08 – the Ragin' Cajuns chances of reaching Lee's goal of a successful on-court product could be reached.

Lee will have his most experienced squad on the court in 2009-10 as there are nine seniors on the roster.

Last year it seemed as though UL might have veered off course in terms of success on court, but one has to remember that Lee had to deal with injuries to several players that added up to a total of 61 games lost to injury/illness.

Throughout his first five years as head coach Lee has been able to make late season adjustments in the team's style of play to fit his personnel – a trait which makes him one of the top strategists in the Sun Belt Conference.

In 2007-08, behind a young nucleus, the Cajuns battled back from a slow start to finish the regular season 6-2 and add the title of SBC West Champs.

In 2005-06, UL was sitting at 5-14 at the end of January and could have mailed it in down the stretch. Lee wouldn't allow his team to do so. He took a group of guys and taught them to value the "team" concept. The end result was his squad ending the regular season 7-1 in February and advancing to the semifinals of the SBC Tournament.

More valuable in Lee's character is importance on preparing young men for the future.

More memorable than wins and losses in the 2005-06 season was Lee's molding of Michael Southall into a dominant basketball player once more. Southall who had spent the previous two seasons away from basketball with off-court issues was given a second chance with the Ragin' Cajuns. Lee looked at it as an opportunity for a young man to prepare for the future. The chance given to Southall allowed him to play competitively once more to improve his chances at a spot in the NBA and allowed Lee to teach him the values of being a well-rounded citizen.

Lee's defensive philosophy has paid dividends. His 2007-08 squad held opponents to 65.8 points per game – the lowest for UL since moving to Division I.

An added boost for the program came during the recruiting season. The 2008-09 signing class was named best in the Sun Belt Conference, according to The Hoop Scoop.

Even though Lee has only been the UL head coach for five full seasons, he has already laid down the foundation for a program that will focus on winning in the game of life first and letting the chips fall where they may on the basketball court.

NOTE: *Robert Lee's record as a head coach includes games vacated due to NCAA sanctions. Louisiana's on-court record with Lee as head coach is 67-83 and on-court Sun Belt record is 43-41.

The Basics

The veteran of the Ragin' Cajuns men's basketball staff, now in his 14th season with the program overall and sixth season as the head coach, Robert Lee was elevated to the position of head coach on Aug. 17, 2004, when he was officially introduced as the program's top boss after an eight-year stint as a valued assistant.

Lee, 41, is a New Roads, La., native and 1991 graduate of Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La.

He spent eight seasons as an assistant coach at Louisiana serving on the staffs of former head coaches Marty Fletcher (1996-97) and Jessie Evans (1997-2004) before taking over as head coach prior to the 2004-05 season.

During his tenure at Louisiana, Lee has been a part of a program which has advanced to the Sun Belt Tournament semifinals four times, won the Sun Belt Tournament in 2000, advanced to the NCAA Tournament once and NIT twice, while claiming three Sun Belt West Division championships.

Prior to Louisiana

Lee joined the Ragin' Cajuns basketball program during the summer of 1996 after serving four years as head coach at nearby Opelousas High School.

Lee guided OHS to four consecutive 20-win seasons including a 29-5 mark in his final season in 1995-96, which also included a berth in the state Class 4A quarterfinals.

Before launching his coaching career at Opelousas High, Lee served for one year as a student assistant at Nicholls State in 1990-91 under head coach Rickey Broussard.

Personal

Lee was a four-year letterwinner at Nicholls State and served as team captain in his senior season in 1989-90 under then Colonels head coach Gordon Stouffer.

Lee received his bachelor's degree in general studies from Nicholls State on May 17, 1991, while earning both President's List and Dean's List honors for his academic achievement.

Lee and his wife Donique are the parents of one daughter, Jourdan, and one son, Trei.

•MT started the half 5-of-8 to maintain a nine-point edge.
•The Cajuns went four-plus minutes without scoring. Terrific defense held MT in check, allowing only a pair of baskets over that span to keep the margin at 13 points, 48-35, at 12:41.
•The Cajuns cut the Blue Raiders' lead down to 10 points (54-44), but Montarrio Haddock drained a three-pointer from the top of the key. Haddock followed with a basket and then two free throws by Demario Williams boosted the lead 17 points with 8:06 remaining.

The Story Behind the Nickname

Referred to as the Ragin' Cajuns, the University of Louisiana has perhaps the most unique and fitting nickname in all of collegiate athletics.

In 1921, the University adopted the nickname and mascot Bulldogs. Beginning in 1963, Louisiana-Lafayette football teams were dubbed the "Raging Cajuns" by then-Sports Information Director Bob Henderson and head football coach Russ Faulkinberry. In addition, the team switched from gold helmets to white helmets with an Acadian flag. At the time, more than 90 percent of Faulkinberry's teams were composed of Louisiana high school players, many with French-speaking Acadian backgrounds.

The "Raging Cajuns" nickname stuck, and in 1967 the second 'g' was dropped to form the word Ragin'. In the early 1970's other sports teams began to adopt the Ragin' Cajuns nickname. The University made a full switch to Ragin' Cajuns during the 1974-75 school year as part of "Operation Turnaround".

In fact, the Ragin' Cajuns were voted as the best collegiate team nickname by Sporting News in 1998 and by an ESPN SportsNation survey in 2006.

University History

1898: Louisiana lawmakers approved the creation of an "Industrial Institute and academy" in the 13th Senatorial District.

1900: Dr. Edwin L. Stephens was named the first president of SLII, the Southwestern Louisiana Industrial Institute, which was to be located on the outskirts of Lafayette on 25 acres of donated land. SLII opened its doors on Sept. 18, 1901, with 100 students and eight faculty members.

1903: Eighteen students were the first to graduate from SLII.

1921: SLII became the Southwestern Louisiana Institute (SLI) when it was designated as one of the state's institutions of higher learning. The year before, it had began offering a four-year course that culminated with a bachelor's of arts degree.

1960: SLI became the University of Southwestern Louisiana (USL) when it achieved university status.

1999: USL was renamed the University of Louisiana at Lafayette (UL).

The new name better reflects its status as the state's second-largest university and an institution with statewide and national - rather than regional - influence.

Men's and Women's Scoring First

Since the NCAA women's basketball records began in 1982, the University of Louisiana is the only school in NCAA history to have a men's individual scoring champion and women's individual scoring champion.

In 1972, Dwight "Bo" Lamar led the nation in scoring with 36.3 points per game (29 games, 1,054 pts). However, that was not the first time. In 1971, Lamar led the college division in scoring. He is the only player in NCAA history to lead the nation in scoring at both the college and university divisions.

In 1990, Kim Perrot led the nation in scoring with 30.0 points per game (28 games, 841 pts). For a scoring champion, Perrot made the second-most three-point field goals since women's records began in 1982.

Highest National Rankings

During that time as a member of the NAIA's Gulf States Conference, the then-USL Bulldogs finished in the "Top Ten" of the national rankings for College-Division teams. The Bulldogs were ranked 10th in the 1960-61 poll conducted by the United Press International (UPI) and was, at the time, the highest season-ending rating in program history.

However, that would change under the tutelage of Beryl Shipley in the early 1970s. The Cajuns finished the 1971-72 campaign ranked 8th overall in both the final UPI and Associated Press polls. The following season, the Cajuns made a one-spot jump, finishing 7th nationally in the UPI and AP polls.

Conference History

Louisiana will compete in its 19th season of Sun Belt Conference basketball during the 2009-10 season. The Ragin' Cajuns joined the league when the American South and Sun Belt conferences merged prior to the 1991-92 basketball season.

The Ragin' Cajuns compete with full-time Sun Belt members Arkansas-Little Rock, Arkansas State, Denver, Florida Atlantic, Florida International, Louisiana-Monroe, Middle Tennessee, New Orleans, North Texas, South Alabama, Troy and Western Kentucky.

UL's conference history in basketball dates back to the Louisiana Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1914-25). UL then joined the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (1926-41) before moving back to the Louisiana Intercollegiate Conference (1941-47). The Cajuns became a charter member of the new Gulf States Conference in time for the 1947-48 season. UL was also a member of the Southland (1971-73; 1975-82) and American South Conferences (1987-91). UL was an NCAA Independent from 1982-87.

10 • DWIGHT "BO" LAMAR

Guard (1970-73)

UL's All-Time Leading Scorer
Led Nation in Scoring in 1972 (36.3 PPG)
Ranks Fifth All-Time in NCAA Scoring
1971-1972-1973 Consensus All-America

The "star of stars" in the Louisiana-Lafayette basketball annals, Dwight "Bo" Lamar is the Cajuns all-time leading scorer and ranks second in NCAA history in scoring.

The 6-foot native of Columbus, Ohio, is the only player in NCAA history to lead both the college and university divisions in scoring. He totaled 3,493 points and averaged 31.2 points per game in his four years, making him the second-leading scorer in Louisiana history behind Pete Maravich.

He was named to every major All-America team his final three years, one year in the college division and two in the university division.

Besides his 33 school individual game, season and career scoring records, his most memorable achievement was his 62-point effort in a game against then-Northeast Louisiana on Feb. 25, 1971 in Blackham Coliseum.

Lamar, a sophomore at the time, had an average first half by Bo standards with 22 points. But he scored 33 in the second half, as he single-handedly brought the Cajuns back from a six-point deficit in the final 35 seconds of regulation.

Long time official Jim Harvey who witnessed the performance first-hand said, "From an officiating standpoint, you don't pay much attention to who's doing all the scoring. But I don't think I've ever worked a game like he had. He's got to be one of the best outside shooter's I've ever seen."

In his final three years, the Ragin' Cajuns had a 74-13 record, second only to UCLA as the Cajuns climbed to No. 4 in the country and appeared in two NCAA Tournaments.

14 • MARVIN WINKLER

Guard (1967-70)

UL's Third All-Time Leading Scorer
First Player to have number retired
1970 Associated Press Little All-America

The No. 3 all-time leading scorer in Louisiana-Lafayette history behind Dwight "Bo" Lamar and Andrew Toney, Marvin Winkler led his teams to a composite record of 75-31 and in his four years the Cajuns either won or tied for the Gulf States Conference title each year.

The 6-foot native of Indianapolis, Ind., played on teams with records of 20-11, 19-5, 20-5, 16-10. Winkler was an all-stater in Indiana and a star at Washington High where he broke Oscar Robertson's city scoring records.

He played for the Cajuns from 1966-70 when then-UL participated in the college division and scored what was then a school record 2,128 points and offered 580 assists.

He was chosen for the Associated Press Little All-America Team following his senior year when he averaged 25.6 points per game. He was also named to the All-Gulf South Conference team his final three years.

He was also chosen for Basketball News' All-South Team twice – a team which included university as well as college division players.

Winkler was the first to have his number withdrawn from action.

24 • ANDREW TONEY

Guard (1977-80)

UL's Second All-Time Leading Scorer
Ranks in Top 50 All-Time in NCAA Scoring
Two-Time Southland Player of the Year
1980 Associated Press All-America

Louisiana-Lafayette's most successful player in the professional ranks, Andrew Toney helped make the Philadelphia 76ers a powerhouse in the 1980s, himself being one of the most feared players in the league at the time.

The 6-foot-3, Birmingham, Ala., native played four years in Cajunland and finished second only to Dwight "Bo" Lamar in career scoring.

He scored 2,526 points and averaged 23.6 points per game in his tenure with the Cajuns, scoring 46 points in a game three times. His best scoring season was his last when he averaged 26.1 points per game as he led the Cajuns into the quarterfinals of the NIT.

A consistent shooter, Toney hit 53 percent of this shots from the field in his career and ranked among the team leader in assists, field goals and free throw percentage.

Toney starred for the 76ers from 1980-89. He finished his nine-year NBA career with a 15.9 career scoring average and a shooting percentage of .500 from the field and .797 from the free throw line. His best season came during the 1982-83 campaign when he helped lead the 76ers to a league championship and an NBA playoff record for winning percentage (.923 with a 12-1 playoff record that year).

DR. E. JOSEPH SAVOIE

University President | Louisiana, 1976

Dr. E. Joseph Savoie is the sixth president of the University of Louisiana at Lafayette.

He holds bachelor's and master's degrees in education from UL Lafayette and earned a doctor of education in educational leadership and administration from Columbia University's Teachers College in New York.

As former Commissioner of Higher Education for the State of Louisiana, he was involved in several major postsecondary education reforms in Louisiana, including:

- the restructuring of higher education governance;
- creation of the Louisiana Community and Technical College System;
- teacher education and school reform initiatives;
- the state's Master Plan for Public Postsecondary Education; and
- the promotion of collaboration within the entire education community.

Under his leadership, financial support for public postsecondary education more than doubled and Louisiana's colleges and universities became more engaged in addressing Louisiana's economic and social challenges.

Savoie held numerous state, regional, and national positions. Govs. M. J. "Mike" Foster, Edwin Edwards and Kathleen Blanco all tapped him for higher education committees and commissions in their administrations. Savoie was a cabinet member in three governors' administrations – Foster's, Blanco's and Bobby Jindal's.

His regional and national affiliations include the Southern Regional Education Board, the national State Higher Education Executive Officers, the Council for Advancement and Support of Education and the American Association of School Administrators.

His awards and honors include the 2007 CASE District IV Chief Executive Leadership Award, which was renamed the "Dr. E. Joseph Savoie Chief Executive Leadership Award;" the 2004 University of Louisiana at Lafayette Outstanding Alumnus Award; and the 2000 Henry Mason Award, which is presented by the Louisiana Chapter of the American Association of University Professors.

Savoie returned to his alma mater as president in July 2008. Prior to his appointment as Commissioner of Higher Education, he served in many roles on the UL Lafayette campus, including vice president for University Advancement, executive director of the Alumni Association, program director for Union Program Council, student government advisor and adjunct assistant professor.

Savoie and his wife, Gail, have a daughter, Jennifer Blaire Saulnier, and a son, Adam Savoie.

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENTS

The University of Louisiana has had only six presidents in its first century-plus of existence. Newly appointed University president, Dr. E. Joseph Savoie, was selected to head Louisiana-Lafayette on December 6, 2007.

- MEDIA MEMBERS SHOULD NEVER CONTACT A STUDENT-ATHLETE DIRECTLY AT ANY TIME.
- That contact rule begins the minute the S-A enrolls in school as a freshman until the time they run out of eligibility – offseason and summers included. Contact includes, but is not limited to, in-person interviews outside of an athletic event or practice, phone calls, text messages, email and any other form of online communication (ie. Facebook, MySpace, etc.).
- Student-athletes have been instructed to immediately terminate any contact initiated by a member of the media.
- Player interviews MUST be arranged through the SID office. Players will not be available for gameday interviews until the postgame press conference. Interviews will always be scheduled around a student-athlete's academic schedule.

Basketball Student-Athlete Availability

- Student-athletes are available for interviews AFTER PRACTICE depending on their class schedule.
- Student-athletes are NOT available for interviews if it is their NCAA mandated day off.
- NO INTERVIEWS the day BEFORE or day AFTER a game.
- Practice is closed to the media the day before and day after a game. Gameday shootaround is CLOSED.
  - Student-athletes are available on gameday, but postgame only.

Practices

- Practices are closed to the public due to limited space inside the Leon Moncla Indoor Practice Facility.
- GENERAL PRACTICE TIMES:
Mon/Wed/Thurs/Fri: 3:30-6:00 p.m.
Tuesday: 3:00-4:00 p.m.
- Media members are allowed inside the Leon Moncla Indoor Practice Facility for ONLY the first 15 minutes and final 30 minutes of practices that are open.

Injury Information

- The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) regulates the use and disclosure of certain information held by "covered entities". It establishes regulations for the use and disclosure of Protected Health Information (PHI). PHI is any information held by a covered entity which concerns health status and provision of health care that can be linked to an individual. This is interpreted rather broadly and includes any part of an individual's medical record.
- HIPAA Privacy Rule. Under the HIPAA Privacy Rule, the University must reasonably limit uses and disclosures of medical information to the minimum necessary to accomplish their intended purpose. In order to supply the media with injury information related to student-athletes, the University shall be limited to discussing the athlete's name, along with a broad term for the injury and upcoming playing status.
- Student-athletes that miss practice due to an injury will not be available to the media for post-practice interviews.
- Student-athletes that are injured during a game will not be allowed to participate in post-game media interviews.
- Members of the media should never approach athletic trainers to discuss the injury of a student-athlete. All covering news outlets, including live television and radio broadcasts, will be supplied with in-game injury information by the SID.
- The SID office, in association with the athletic trainer, will have an injury report available to the media on Monday.

Parking

- Cajundome: Media parking at the Cajundome is located on the north side of the arena (adjacent to Congress Street). Parking lot entrance number 8 must be used exclusively. Passes must be displayed in the front windshield at all times (you will not be allowed in the parking lot area without a parking pass).

Media Services

- The Louisiana Sports Information staff provides the working news media with a media workroom with the sole purpose of writing and transmitting stories.
- It is located on the ground level of the north quadrant of the Cajundome. Access to the press room is limited to those with working credentials ONLY.
- The media workroom opens approximately two hours prior to tipoff.
- A pre-game meal and drinks will be available ninety minutes prior to tipoff.
- Phone lines are available in the media workroom on a first-come first-serve basis.
- Pre-game notes, programs, media guides and statistics along with other information will be available in the media room.
- Halftime and final statistics, along with a complete play-by-play will also be provided. Unofficial and official stats will be indicated upon release.
- Louisiana and the United States Basketball Writers Association jointly remind you that the Cajundome press row area is a working press facility and that cheering for either team will not be tolerated. Violators will be asked to leave by security personnel.

Phone Lines/Internet

- One phone line is available for the visiting team's radio/SID. Additional phone line requests must be made at least six weeks in advance to the SID.

Below are a few guidelines:

- All members of the media must request credentials IN WRITING through UL men's basketball contact Matt Hebert (preferred via e-mail).
