HOME OF THE RAGIN' CAJUNS CAJUN FIELD

Cajun Field enters its 37th season as the home of Louisiana's Ragin' Cajuns football.

For the past five seasons, all under head coach Rickey Bustle, the Cajuns have posted a winning record at home. In addition, attendance for the first four seasons under Bustle increased 41 percent over the preceding four-year period.

From 2003-04, Louisiana-Lafayette won six straight home games, the fourth longest streak at Cajun Field.

UL currently holds an all-time mark of 104-86-2 at Cajun Field.

Louisiana-Lafayette has enjoyed plenty of memorable moments since the venue opened in 1971.

The greatest of those moments came during the 1996 season when the Ragin' Cajuns opened their 26th season in the facility with the biggest upset in school history, a 29-22 victory over No. 25 Texas A&M in front of a Cajun Field-record 38,783 fans. It is also the largest crowd to ever attend an athletic event in Acadiana.

That mark surpassed the previous record crowd of 36,133 that saw the Cajuns face the Alabama Crimson Tide on Oct. 6, 1990.

"The Swamp" has been the site of much success with four consecutive 4-1 records from 1993-96. The school record for wins at Cajun Field in a season is seven, set during the 1976 season, one of two undefeated seasons at "The Swamp."

Cajun Field boasts 2,577 chairback seats and bleacher seating to the capacity of another 28,423, giving "The Swamp" a seating capacity of 31,000.

Cajun Field was built in time for the 1971 football season. The characteristics which helped create the name and tradition have been there since the initial construction.

For the first 17 years, Louisiana's football stadium was simply known as Cajun Field. In the summer of 1988, then-Strength & Conditioning Coach Mickey Faulkinberry suggested referring to Cajun Field as "The Swamp".

The name stuck for various reasons. To start, the field surface is set two feet below sea level in a natural bowl. In addition to providing a picturesque surrounding, the sunken facility allows most fans to walk down to their stadium seats as a convenience. The Cajuns and their opponents must enter Cajun Field through a long tunnel from the Cox Communications Athletic Center.

With the below-sea level playing surface, a total of four 60-horsepower pumps and a sophisticated drainage system help keep the field in solid playing condition even during frequent South Louisiana rainstorms.

"The Swamp" nickname also fits in with the geographic makeup of the area, with its many surrounding bayous and wetlands, as well as the close proximity to the Gulf of Mexico, which lies just 30 miles south.

In fact, a popular gathering place for Louisiana-Lafayette students and a regular stop for visitors is the small swamp located in the heart of UL's main campus, which sits adjacent to the Student Union.

Ironically, the on-campus swamp, officially named Cypress Lake, lays over the original football field that existed during the early 1900's, adding to the distinct nickname.

The National Wetlands Center, a nationally renown research facility that Louisiana-Lafayette hosts and administers, is located less than a half-mile from Cajun Field.
